Postal Regulatory Commission,

I am writing because I am disgusted that sorting machines have been yanked out of offices to erode services.

I rely heavily for services through the post office and want to see this system strengthened and updated and strengthened. I want to see postal system infrastructure greatly improved, postal workers better supported, and service dramatically improved.

Please do not allow new rules and proposed regulations to weaken a system the entire country, especially poor, ill, and elderly, be destroyed.

There are fewer and fewer offices near my home.

Yes, updated, make strong, supportive changes, but do not destroy services.

Thank you,

Jane Sonar
