With respect to the nonpublic version of the modification that is filed under seal, the Postal Service incorporates by reference the application for non-public treatment that was filed in conjunction with the Postal Service's notice of May 21, 2020, in this docket.[3] The application protects from disclosure the information that has been redacted from the modification that the Postal Service is filing today with this notice. In addition, the Postal Service recently provided notice to all foreign postal operators within the Universal Postal Union network through an International Bureau Circular issued on December 21, 2020, that the Postal Service will be regularly submitting certain business information to the Commission. Some UPU-designated foreign postal operators may have a proprietary interest in such information.[4] The circular includes information on how third parties may address any confidentiality concerns with the Commission.

[3] Request of the United States Postal Service to Add Global Expedited Package Services – Non-Published Rates 15 (GEPS – NPR 15) to the Competitive Products List and Notice of Filing GEPS - NPR 15 Model Contract and Application for Non-Public Treatment of Materials Filed Under Seal, Docket Nos. MC2020-136 and CP2020-145, May 21, 2020, at Attachment 1.

[4] In addition, in the event of a preliminary determination of non-public status under 39 C.F.R. § 3011.103, or a request for access to non-public materials under 39 C.F.R. § 3011.301, or a motion for disclosure of non-public materials under 39 C.F.R. § 3011.400, or a request for disclosure of materials for which nonpublic treatment has expired under 39 C.F.R. § 3011.401, the Postal Service notes, on Canada Post's behalf that differences in the official observation of national holidays might adversely and unduly affect Canada Post's ability to avail itself of the times allowed for response under the Commission's rules. In such cases, Canada Post has requested that the Postal Service convey its preemptive request that the Commission account for such holidays when accepting submissions on matters that affect Canada Post's interests. A listing of Canada's official holidays can be found at: https://www.canadapostpostescanada.ca/cpc/en/support/kb/sending/general-information/find-out-operating-hours-on-holidays.

The Mailer acknowledges that this Modification and supporting documentation will be filed with the Postal Regulatory Commission ("Commission") in a docketed proceeding (CP2020-145 SERIAL NUMBER NPR15-FY22-DEC21-N-T3-0429). The Mailer authorizes the USPS to determine the scope of information that must be made publicly available in any Commission docketed proceeding in which information related to this Modification must be filed. In addition, the USPS may be required to file information in connection with this Modification (including revenue, cost or volume data) in other Commission dockets, including the Commission docket number for the Annual Compliance Report (ACR) for the USPS fiscal year(s) in which this Agreement is in effect. Each ACR docket has a distinct docket number, such as ACR202#, in which "202#" signifies the USPS fiscal year to which the ACR pertains. The Mailer has the right, in accordance with the Commission's rules, to address its confidentiality concerns directly with the Commission. The procedure for making an application to the Commission for non-public treatment of materials believed to be protected from disclosure is found in part 3011 of the regulations concerning the Commission in Title 39 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

The Parties may execute this Modification in one or more counterparts (including by facsimile or by electronic means such as .pdf format). Not all Parties need be signatories to the same document. All counterpart signed documents shall be deemed an original and one instrument.
