On page 6 of his direct testimony, USPS witness Abdirahman claims that separate CRA costs for First-Class Automation and Nonautomation letters are no longer provided by the In-Office Cost System (IOCS).

- A. Please indicate where in your testimony you describe the changes that have been effected such that the IOCS no longer differentiates between First-Class Automation and Nonautomation letters. If no explanation is available, please explain the reason for this omission.
- B. If there is no explanation in your testimony, please describe the circumstances surrounding this change and provide all documents relating to this change.
