Docket No. MC2005-3

PRESIDING OFFICER'S RULING SETTING FORTH THE PROCEDURES FOR ACCESS TO THE OCTOBER 20, 2005
TRANSCRIPT VOLUME 4 PLACED UNDER PROTECTIVE CONDITIONS

(Issued October 24, 2005)

During the October 20, 2005 hearing, the Presiding Officer closed the hearing room in order to place portions of the oral cross-examination, redirect-examination, and recross-examination of Bookspan Witness Epp under seal.¹ This action was taken since the line of questioning had a likelihood of requiring Witness Epp to disclose confidential and commercially sensitive information relating to Bookspan's business plans and operating data.

Counsel for Bookspan indicated that Commission staff (including the Office of Consumer Advocate staff) did not have to sign a previously prepared protective conditions document in order to attend the closed session. Also, counsel to intervenors did not have to sign because they were bound by the canons of ethics. However others, including principals, economists, or consultants would have to sign the protective conditions document before being admitted to the closed session.

Tr. 3/467-8.

The same rule will apply for access to the transcript generated during the closed session. The Commission staff (including the Office of the Consumer Advocate staff) and counsel to intervenors do not have to sign a protective conditions document in order to obtain access to the closed session transcript. All others shall comply with the protective conditions document attached to this Ruling. These protective conditions are identical in all material respects to those employed earlier in this proceeding.²

RULING

1. Access to Docket No. MC2005-3, Volume 4 – Official Transcript Hearing Held October 20, 2005 (pages 470-519), provided under protective seal shall be governed by the attached set of protective conditions.
2. The Commission staff (including the Office of the Consumer Advocate staff) and counsel to intervenors are exempt from the requirement to sign the protective conditions document in order to obtain access to Docket No. MC2005-3, Volume 4 – Official Transcript Hearing Held October 20, 2005 (pages 470-519), provided under protective seal.

STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH PROTECTIVE CONDITIONS

The following protective conditions limit access to the Docket No. 2005-3, Volume 4 – Official Transcript Hearing Held October 20, 2005 (pages 470-519), provided under protective seal in closed session by Bookspan Witness Epp as discussed in Presiding Officer’s Ruling No. MC2005-3/13 (hereinafter, “these materials”). Individuals seeking to obtain access to these materials must agree to comply with these conditions, complete the attached certifications, provide the completed certifications to the Commission, and serve them upon counsel for the party submitting the confidential material.

1. Only a person who is either:
 - (a) an employee of the Postal Rate Commission (including the Office of the Consumer Advocate) with a need to know; or
 - (b) a participant in Postal Rate Commission Docket No. MC2005-3, or a person employed by such participant, or acting as agent, consultant, contractor, affiliated person, or other representative of such participant for purposes related to the litigation of Docket No. MC2005-3, shall be granted access to these materials. However, no person involved in competitive decision-making for any entity that might gain competitive advantage from use of this information shall be granted access to these materials. “Involved in competitive decision-making” includes consulting on marketing or advertising strategies, pricing, product research and development, product design, or the competitive structuring and composition of bids, offers or proposals. It does not include rendering legal advice or performing other services that are not directly in furtherance of activities in competition with a person or entity having a proprietary interest in the protected materials.
2. No person granted access to these materials is permitted to disseminate them in whole or in part to any person not authorized to obtain access under these conditions.
3. The final date of any participant’s access shall be the earlier of:
 - (a) the date on which the Postal Rate Commission issues its recommended decision or otherwise closes Docket No. MC2005-3;

- (b) the date on which that participant formally withdraws from Docket No. MC2005-3; or
 - (c) the last date on which the person who obtains access is under contract or retained or otherwise affiliated with the Docket No. MC2005-3 participant on whose behalf that person obtains access. The participant immediately shall notify the Postal Rate Commission and counsel for the party who provided the protected materials of the termination of any such business or consulting arrangement or retainer or affiliation that occurs before the closing of the evidentiary record.
- 4. Immediately after the Commission issues its last recommended decision in Docket No. MC2005-3, a participant (and any person working on behalf of that participant) who has obtained a copy of these materials shall certify to the Commission:
 - (a) that the copy was maintained in accordance with these conditions (or others established by the Commission); and
 - (b) that the copy (and any duplicates) either have been destroyed or returned to the Commission.
- 5. The duties of any persons obtaining access to these materials shall apply to material disclosed or duplicated in writing, orally, electronically, or otherwise, by any means, format, or medium. These duties shall apply to the disclosure of excerpts from or parts of the document, as well as to the entire document.
- 6. All persons who obtain access to these materials are required to protect the document by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of the document as those persons, in the ordinary course of business, would be expected to use to protect their own proprietary material or trade secrets and other internal, confidential, commercially sensitive, and privileged information.
- 7. These conditions shall apply to any revised, amended, or supplemental versions of materials provided in Docket No. MC2005-3.

8. The duty of nondisclosure of anyone obtaining access to these materials is continuing, terminable only by specific order of the Commission, or as specified in paragraphs 10 through 15, below.
9. Any Docket No. MC2005-3 participant or other person seeking access to these materials by requesting access, consents to these or such other conditions as the Commission may approve.
10. The cover of Transcript Volume 4 is clearly marked "Docket No. 2005-3, Transcript Volume #4, October 20, 2005, provided under protective seal" to alert custodians of the material to its confidential or proprietary nature. Except with the prior written consent of Bookspan, or as hereinafter provided, no protected information may be disclosed to any person.
11. Any written materials — including but not limited to discovery requests and responses, requests for admission and responses, deposition transcripts and exhibits, pleadings, motions, affidavits, written testimony and briefs — that quote, summarize, or contain materials protected under these protective conditions are also covered by the same protective conditions and certification requirements, and shall be filed with the Commission only under seal. Documents submitted to the Commission as confidential shall remain sealed while in the Secretary's office or such other place as the Commission may designate so long as they retain their status as stamped confidential documents.
12. Any oral testimony, argument or other statements that quote, summarize or otherwise disclose materials protected under these protective conditions shall be received only in hearing sessions limited to Bookspan representatives and other persons who have complied with the terms of the protective order and have signed the attached certifications. The transcript pages containing such protected testimony shall be filed under seal and treated as protected materials under paragraph 11.
13. Notwithstanding the foregoing, protected material covered by paragraphs 11 or 12 may be disclosed to the following persons without their execution of a compliance certificate. Such disclosure shall not exceed the extent necessary to assist in prosecuting this proceeding or any appeals or reconsideration thereof.
 - (a) Members of the Commission.

- (b) Court reporters, stenographers, or persons operating audio or video recording equipment for such court reporters or stenographers at hearings or depositions.
 - (c) Any other person designated by the Commission in the interest of justice, upon such terms as the Commission may deem proper.
 - (d) Reviewing courts and their staffs. Any person seeking to disclose protected information to a reviewing court shall make a good faith effort to obtain protective conditions at least as effective as those set forth in this document. Moreover, the protective conditions set forth herein shall remain in effect throughout any subsequent review unless overridden by the action of a reviewing court.
14. A participant may apply to the Commission for a ruling that documents, categories of documents, or deposition transcripts, stamped or designated as confidential, are not entitled to such status and protection. Bookspan shall be given notice of the application and an opportunity to respond. To revoke confidential status, the proponent of declassification must show by a preponderance of the evidence that public disclosure of the materials is consistent with the standards of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(1)-(9), and Commission precedent.
15. Subpoena by Courts or Other Agencies. If a court or other administrative agency subpoenas or orders production of confidential information which a participant has obtained under the terms of this protective order, the target of the subpoena or order shall promptly (within two business days) notify Bookspan (or any other participant who designated the document as confidential) of the pendency of the subpoena or order to allow the designating party time to object to that production or seek a protective order.
16. Each person desiring to obtain access to these materials must file a notice with the Postal Rate Commission listing name, title and position at least one day in advance of the day that the person signs a certification at the Commission's docket section in order to receive a copy of the materials. A copy of the notice must also be served in advance on Bookspan.

CERTIFICATION

The undersigned represents that:

Access to the Docket No. 2005-3, Volume 4 – Official Transcript Hearing Held October 20, 2005 (pages 470-519), provided under protective seal in closed session as discussed in Presiding Officer’s Ruling No. MC2005-3/13 (hereinafter, “these materials” or “the information”) has been authorized by the Commission.
