Postal Rate and Fee Changes

Docket No. R2006-1

PRESIDING OFFICER'S RULING GRANTING MOTION
FOR WAIVER AND FOR PROTECTIVE CONDITIONS

(Issued June 15, 2006)

The Postal Service requests a waiver of relevant portions of rules 31(k) and 54 concerning library reference USPS-LR-L-35, Calculation of FedEx Day Turn Variability Factors, a category 2 library reference sponsored by witness Kelley (USPS-T-15).¹ It also seeks and proposes specific protective conditions to govern the provision of this library reference.² The Postal Service deferred filing library reference USPS-LR-L-35 pending a ruling on its motion. Pursuant to Order No. 1464, answers to the motion were due May 31, 2006.

The Postal Service states that the library reference contains information concerning the FedEx agreement, including cost data for fuel, non-fuel, and handling charges, as well as volume information, on a daily basis.³ It represents that this information is commercially sensitive and proprietary as to both the Postal Service and FedEx and that its disclosure could result in harm to both parties.⁴

¹ Motion of the United States Postal Service for Waiver and for Protective Conditions for Library Reference that Includes Costs and Other Data Associated with the FedEx Transportation Agreement, May 3, 2006.

² Id. at 1 and Attachment A.

³ Id. at 1.

⁴ Id. at 1-2.

No participant opposes this motion. I granted similar Postal Service motions regarding FedEx contract materials in the two previous omnibus rate proceedings,⁵ and shall follow that established practice here. Therefore, I shall grant the Postal Service's motion for waiver, and allow provision of the library reference under protective conditions.

The attached provisions mirror those adopted in Docket No. R2005-1 and proposed by the Postal Service in its motion in this case, with one addition: an exception from non-disclosure available when a proponent has shown that the final order of a court has directed that the materials be disclosed under the Freedom of Information Act because of an express determination that the information therein is not entitled to exemption from disclosure under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(1)-(9). The Presiding Officer in Docket No. N2006-1 recently found merit in a proposal to add this term, and included it in protective conditions he adopted for sensitive materials in that case.⁶ I concur in his assessment of the supplemental provision.

RULING

1. The Motion of the United States Postal Service for Waiver and for Protective Conditions for Library Reference that Includes Costs and Other Data Associated with the FedEx Transportation Agreement, filed May 3, 2006, is granted , as provided in the body of this ruling.

⁵ See Presiding Officer's Ruling No. R2005-1/3, May 4, 2005; Presiding Officer's Ruling No. R2001-1/5, October 31, 2001.

⁶ See Presiding Officer's Ruling No. N2006-1/13, May 24, 2006, at 3-4.

2. The attached protective conditions govern access to materials provided in response to this Ruling.

George Omas
Presiding Officer

STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH PROTECTIVE CONDITIONS

The following protective conditions limit access to materials provided in Docket No. R2006-1 by the Postal Service in response to Presiding Officer's Ruling No. R2006-1/5 (hereinafter, "these materials"). Individuals seeking to obtain access to these materials must agree to comply with these conditions, complete the attached certifications, provide the completed certifications to the Commission, and serve them upon counsel for the party submitting the confidential material.

1. Only a person who is either:
 - (a) an employee of the Postal Rate Commission (including the Office of the Consumer Advocate) with a need-to-know; or
 - (b) a participant in Postal Rate Commission Docket No. R2006-1, or a person employed by such participant, or acting as agent, consultant, contractor, affiliated person, or other representative of such participant for purposes related to the litigation of Docket No. R2006-1, shall be granted access to these materials. However, no person involved in competitive decision-making for any entity that might gain competitive advantage from use of this information shall be granted access to these materials. "Involved in competitive decision-making" includes consulting on marketing or advertising strategies, pricing, product research and development, product design, or the competitive structuring and composition of bids, offers or proposals. It does not include rendering legal advice or performing other services that are not directly in furtherance of activities in competition with a person or entity having a proprietary interest in the protected material.
2. No person granted access to these materials is permitted to disseminate them in whole or in part to any person not authorized to obtain access under these conditions.
3. Unless otherwise changed pursuant to paragraph 4, the final date of any participant's access shall be the earlier of:
 - (a) the date on which the Postal Rate Commission issues its final recommended decision or otherwise closes Docket No. R2006-1;

- (b) the date on which that participant formally withdraws from Docket No. R2006-1; or
 - (c) the last date on which the person who obtains access is under contract or retained or otherwise affiliated with the Docket No. R2006-1 participant on whose behalf that person obtains access, whichever comes first. The participant immediately shall notify the Postal Rate Commission and counsel for the party who provided the protected material of the termination of any such business and consulting arrangement or retainer or affiliation that occurs before the closing of the evidentiary record.
- 4. Immediately after the Commission issues its final recommended decision in Docket No. R2006-1, a participant (and any person working on behalf of that participant) who has obtained a copy of these materials shall:
 - (a) certify to the Commission that the copy was maintained in accordance with these conditions (or others established by the Commission); and
 - (b) either certify that the copy (and any duplicates) either have been destroyed or returned to the Commission, or present written consent from the Postal Service to extend the obligation to destroy or return copies until a date certain or until the occurrence of some other event specified by the Postal Service.
- 5. The duties of any persons obtaining access to these materials shall apply to material disclosed or duplicated in writing, orally, electronically, or otherwise, by any means, format, or medium. These duties shall apply to the disclosure of excerpts from or parts of the document, as well as to the entire document.
- 6. All persons who obtain access to these materials are required to protect the document by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of the document as those persons, in the ordinary course of business, would be expected to use to protect their own proprietary material or trade secrets and other internal, confidential, commercially-sensitive, and privileged information.
- 7. These conditions shall apply to any revised, amended, or supplemental versions of materials provided in Docket No. R2006-1.

8. The duty of nondisclosure of anyone obtaining access to these materials is continuing, terminable only by specific order of the Commission, or as specified in paragraphs 10 through 15, below.
9. Any Docket No. R2006-1 participant or other person seeking access to these materials by requesting access, consents to these or such other conditions as the Commission may approve.
10. The Postal Service shall clearly mark the following legend on each page, or portion thereof, that the Service seeks to protect under this agreement: “Confidential—Subject To Protective Conditions In Docket No. R2006-1 Before the Postal Rate Commission” or other markings that are reasonably calculated to alert custodians of the material to its confidential or proprietary nature. Except with the prior written consent of the Postal Service, or as hereinafter provided, no protected information may be disclosed to any person.
11. Any written materials — including but not limited to discovery requests and responses, requests for admission and responses, deposition transcripts and exhibits, pleadings, motions, affidavits, written testimony and briefs — that quote, summarize, or contain materials protected under these protective conditions are also covered by the same protective conditions and certification requirements, and shall be filed with the Commission only under seal. Documents submitted to the Commission as confidential shall remain sealed while in the Secretary’s office or such other place as the Commission may designate so long as they retain their status as stamped confidential documents.
12. Any oral testimony, argument or other statements that quote, summarize or otherwise disclose materials protected under these protective conditions shall be received only in hearing sessions limited to Postal Service representatives and other persons who have complied with the terms of the protective order and have signed the attached certifications. The transcript pages containing such protected testimony shall be filed under seal and treated as protected materials under paragraph 11.

13. Notwithstanding the foregoing, protected material covered by paragraphs 11 or 12 may be disclosed to the following persons without their execution of a compliance certificate. Such disclosure shall not exceed the extent necessary to assist in prosecuting this proceeding or any appeals or reconsideration thereof.
 - (a) Members of the Commission.
 - (b) Court reporters, stenographers, or persons operating audio or video recording equipment for such court reporters or stenographers at hearings or depositions.
 - (c) Any other person designated by the Commission in the interest of justice, upon such terms as the Commission may deem proper.
 - (d) Reviewing courts and their staffs. Any person seeking to disclose protected information to a reviewing court shall make a good faith effort to obtain protective conditions at least as effective as those set forth in this document. Moreover, the protective conditions set forth herein shall remain in effect throughout any subsequent review unless overridden by the action of a reviewing court.

14. A participant may apply to the Commission for a ruling that documents, categories of documents, or deposition transcripts, stamped or designated as confidential, are not entitled to such status and protection. The Postal Service or other person that designated the document or testimony as confidential shall be given notice of the application and an opportunity to respond. To revoke confidential status, the proponent of declassification must show by a preponderance of the evidence that public disclosure of the materials is consistent with the standards of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(1)-(9), and Commission precedent. Alternatively, a proponent may show that the final order of a court has directed that the materials be disclosed under the Freedom of Information Act because of an express determination that the information therein is not entitled to exemption from disclosure under 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(1)-(9).

15. Subpoena by Courts or Other Agencies. If a court or other administrative agency subpoenas or orders production of confidential information which a participant has obtained under the terms of this protective order, the target of the subpoena or order shall promptly (within two business days) notify the Postal Service (or other person who designated the document as confidential) of the pendency of the subpoena or order to allow the designating party time to object to that production or seek a protective order.

CERTIFICATION
