Dear Ms. Crenshaw:

This is in response to your letter dated August 20, 1999, concerning our appeal of the partial denial of the Freedom of Information Act request of July 19, 1999, for the Commission's 1998 Report to the Congress on International Mail Volumes, Costs, and Revenue. This is to inform you that we prefer to have the Commission proceed to review the appeal separately from and independently of the Commission's review of our request for the data and information supplied by the Postal Service to the Commission in connection with the Report.

Respectfully,
