<sup>2</sup> Request of the United States Postal Service to Add Priority Mail & First-Class Package Service Contract 80 to the Competitive Product List and Notice of Filing (Under Seal) of Unredacted Governors' Decision, Contract, and Supporting Data, May 11, 2018 (Request).

The Postal Service states that Priority Mail & First-Class Package Service Contract 80 is a competitive product “not of general applicability within the meaning of 39 U.S.C. § 3632(b)(3).” Request at 1. The Postal Service also maintains that the prices and classification underlying the instant contract are supported by Governors’ Decision No. 11-6.<sup>3</sup> The Postal Service further asserts that the Statement of Supporting Justification provides support for adding Priority Mail & First-Class Package Service Contract 80 to the competitive product list and the compliance of the instant contract with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a). Request at 2.

The effective date of the instant contract is two (2) business days following the day on which the Commission issues all necessary regulatory approvals. Id., Attachment B at 4. The contract is scheduled to expire one (1) year from the effective date unless either party terminates the contract on 30 days’ prior written notification. Id.

COMMENTS

The Public Representative has reviewed the instant contract, the Statement of Supporting Justification, and financial model filed under seal that accompanies the Postal Service’s Request. Based upon that review, the Public Representative concludes that Priority Mail & First-Class Package Service Contract 80 should be categorized as a competitive product and added to the competitive product list. In addition, it appears that the instant contract should generate sufficient revenues to cover costs and thereby satisfy the standards of 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

Product List Assignment. Pursuant to 39 U.S.C. § 3642, the Postal Service requests that Priority Mail and First-Class Package Service Contract 80 be added to the competitive product list. 39 U.S.C. § 3642 requires the Commission to consider whether “the Postal Service exercises sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of such product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products.” 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1). Products over which the Postal Service exercises such powers are categorized as market dominant while all others are categorized as competitive.

<sup>3</sup> Decision of the Governors of the United States Postal Service on Establishment of Domestic Competitive Agreements, Outbound International Competitive Agreements, Inbound International Competitive Agreements, and Other Non-Published Competitive Rates, March 22, 2011 (Governors’ Decision No. 11-6).

The Postal Service makes a number of assertions that address the considerations of section 3642(b)(1). Request, Attachment D, at 2. The Public Representative finds these assertions to be reasonable and based upon these assertions, concludes that the Postal Service’s Request to add Priority Mail and First-Class Package Service Contract 80 to the competitive product list is appropriate.

Requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3633. Pursuant to 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a), the Postal Service’s competitive prices must not result in the subsidization of competitive products by market dominant products; ensure that each competitive product will cover its attributable costs; and, ensure that all competitive products collectively contribute an appropriate share of the institutional costs of the Postal Service. Based upon a review of the financial model, it appears the negotiated prices in the instant contract should generate sufficient revenues to cover costs during the contract term.

In addition, the Commission has an opportunity to review the financial results for the instant contract for compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a) each year of the contract in the Annual Compliance Determination.

The Public Representative respectfully submits the foregoing comments for the Commission's consideration.
