ORDER ADDING GEPS 11 TO THE COMPETITIVE PRODUCT LIST AND DESIGNATING BASELINE AGREEMENT

(Issued May 3, 2019)

I. INTRODUCTION

The Postal Service seeks to add Global Expedited Package Services 11 (GEPS 11) to the competitive product list.<sup>1</sup> For the reasons discussed below, the Commission approves the Request.

<sup>1</sup> Request of the United States Postal Service to Add Global Expedited Package Services 11 Contracts to the Competitive Products List, and Notice of Filing (Under Seal) of Contract and Application for Non-Public Treatment of Materials Filed Under Seal, April 24, 2019 (Request).

II. BACKGROUND

Contracts under the GEPS products offer price incentives to mailers that use Priority Mail Express International (PMEI), Priority Mail International (PMI), Commercial ePacket (CeP), and/or First-Class Package International Service (FCPIS). The Commission added GEPS 1, GEPS 2, GEPS 3, GEPS 4, GEPS 5, GEPS 6, GEPS 7, GEPS 8, GEPS 9, and GEPS 10 to the competitive product list in Order Nos. 86, 290, 503, 657, 2844, 3365, 3542, 4129, 4199, and 4800 respectively.<sup>2</sup>

On April 24, 2019, the Postal Service filed the Request, supporting documents, and the negotiated service agreement (Agreement) it seeks to have designated as the baseline agreement for the GEPS 11 product. The supporting documents include:

- A statement of supporting justification for adding GEPS 11 to the competitive product list
- A copy of the Agreement
- A copy of Governors' Decision No. 19-1
- Proposed revisions to the Mail Classification Schedule (MCS)
- A certification of compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)

- Financial workpapers

Request at 2-3; see also id. Attachments 1-5. Also, the Postal Service submitted an application for non-public treatment of materials requesting that unredacted portions of the Agreement, customer-identifying information, and related financial information remain under seal. Request, Attachment 6.

In its Request, the Postal Service states that the Agreement is similar to contracts included under the GEPS 10 product. Request at 3.

The Postal Service will notify the customer of the effective date of the Agreement. Id. If the effective date of the Agreement is the first of the month, the Agreement will expire one year after the effective date. Id. Otherwise, the Agreement will expire on the last day of the month one year after the effective date. Id. at 3-4.

On April 25, 2019, the Commission provided public notice of the Request, established the instant dockets, appointed a Public Representative, and invited comments on whether the Postal Service's filings are consistent with applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.<sup>3</sup>

III. COMMENTS

The Public Representative filed comments on April 30, 2019.<sup>4</sup> No other interested person submitted comments. The Public Representative states that the GEPS 11 product satisfies the requirements for inclusion on the competitive product list. PR Comments at 3. He also states that the contract should generate sufficient revenue to cover costs in compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633. Id. He characterizes as reasonable the Postal Service's assertions regarding the requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3642. Id. He notes that the Commission will have an opportunity to review future

IV. COMMISSION ANALYSIS

The Commission has reviewed the Request, the Agreement, supporting documents, financial analyses provided under seal, and the Public Representative's comments. In its analysis, the Commission must add GEPS 11 to either the market dominant or competitive product list under 39 U.S.C. § 3642. If it finds GEPS 11 to be a competitive product, it must ensure that the Agreement complies with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a) and designate the Agreement as the baseline agreement for the GEPS 11 product.

Product classification. The Commission must classify the GEPS 11 product and add it to either the market dominant or competitive product list. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1); 39 C.F.R. § 3020.34(a). Before adding a product to the competitive product list, the Commission must consider three criteria. First, the Commission must find that the Postal Service does not “exercise[] sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of such product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products.” 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1); see 39 C.F.R. § 3032.32(d). Second, the Commission must ensure that the product is not covered by the postal monopoly. 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(2); 39 C.F.R. § 3020.32(e). Third, the Commission must consider the availability and nature of private sector enterprises engaged in delivering the product, the views of those who use the product, and the likely impact on small business concerns. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(3); 39 C.F.R. §§ 3020.32(f)-(h).

The Postal Service asserts that it does not maintain a position of dominance in the market for international shipping. See Request, Attachment 1 at 2-3. It notes that CeP was previously included as a price category in GEPS contracts because of the significant level of competition in the market. Id. at 3. It contends that small businesses will benefit because GEPS 11 contracts will provide pricing incentives that reduce costs. Id. at 5.

The Commission finds that the Postal Service does not exercise sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of the proposed product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without the risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products. This finding is supported by the fact that the GEPS 11 product is similar to the GEPS 10 competitive product. All of the GEPS 11 price categories are for current competitive products or have previously been included as price categories in other GEPS contracts. Therefore, the Commission concludes that the GEPS 11, with regard to market power, is appropriately a competitive product.

Regarding the other requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b), GEPS 11 consists exclusively of price categories for competitive products not covered by the postal monopoly or that have previously been included in other GEPS agreements. Additionally, the Postal Service competes with other businesses in the market for international shipping services, customers such as the contract partner will likely be interested in the GEPS 11 product, and there is no evidence of an adverse impact on small businesses.

For these reasons, having considered the relevant statutory and regulatory requirements and the Postal Service's supporting justification, the Commission finds that the GEPS 11 product is appropriately classified as competitive and adds it to the competitive product list.

Cost considerations. Because the Commission finds that GEPS 11 is a competitive product, the Postal Service must also show that the Agreement covers its attributable costs, does not cause market dominant products to subsidize competitive products as a whole, and contributes to the Postal Service's institutional costs. 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a); 39 C.F.R. §§ 3015.5 and 3015.7. As long as the revenue generated by the Agreement exceeds its attributable costs, the Agreement is unlikely to reduce the contribution of competitive products as a whole or to adversely affect the ability of competitive products as a whole to contribute an appropriate share of institutional costs. In other words, if the Agreement covers its attributable costs, it is likely to comply with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

The Request includes a certified statement that the Agreement complies with the requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a). Request, Attachment 5. The Postal Service also filed supporting revenue and cost data showing that the Agreement is expected to cover its costs. Based on its review of the record, the Commission finds that the rates should cover the Agreement's attributable costs. See 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)(2). For this reason, the Commission concludes that the Agreement should not result in competitive products as a whole being subsidized by market dominant products, in accordance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)(1). Similarly, the Commission finds that the Agreement is unlikely to prevent competitive products as a whole from contributing an appropriate share of institutional costs, consistent with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)(3). See also 39 C.F.R. § 3015.7(c).

The Commission will review the cost coverage of the Agreement, the GEPS 11 product, and the contribution of competitive products as a whole to the Postal Service's institutional costs in the Annual Compliance Determination to ensure that they continue to comply with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

In conclusion, a preliminary review of the Agreement indicates that it is consistent with section 3633(a).

Baseline agreement. The Commission designates the Agreement as the baseline agreement for the GEPS 11 product. Following current practice, in any future request to add a new negotiated service agreement to the GEPS 11 product, the Postal Service shall identify all significant differences between the new negotiated service agreement and the baseline agreement. Significant differences include terms and conditions that impose new obligations or new requirements on any party to the negotiated service agreement. The docket referenced in the caption of the request should be Docket No. MC2019-132. Consistent with current practice, the request should include a redacted copy of Governors' Decision 19-1.

Other considerations. The Postal Service will notify the customer of the effective date of the Agreement. Request at 3. The Postal Service shall promptly notify the Commission of that effective date. If the effective date of the Agreement is the first of the month, the Agreement will expire one year after the effective date. Id. Otherwise, the Agreement will expire on the last day of the month one year after the effective date. Id. at 3-4. If the Agreement terminates before the scheduled expiration date, the Postal Service shall promptly notify the Commission in this docket.

In conclusion, the Commission approves GEPS 11 as a new product and designates the Agreement as the baseline agreement for the GEPS 11 product. Revisions to the competitive product list and the MCS appear below the signature of this Order and are effective immediately.

V. ORDERING PARAGRAPHS

It is ordered:

1. Global Expedited Package Services 11 (MC2019-132 and CP2019-142) is added to the competitive product list as a new product. Revisions to the competitive product list and the MCS appear below the signature of this Order and are effective immediately.
2. The Commission designates the Agreement as the baseline agreement for the GEPS 11 product.
3. The Postal Service shall promptly notify the Commission of the effective date of the Agreement.

4. If the Agreement terminates before the scheduled expiration date, the Postal Service shall promptly notify the Commission in this docket.
5. The Secretary shall arrange for publication in the Federal Register of an updated product list reflecting the change made in this Order.

By the Commission.
