ORDER ADDING PRIORITY MAIL EXPRESS, PRIORITY MAIL, FIRST-CLASS
PACKAGE SERVICE & PARCEL SELECT CONTRACT 8
TO THE COMPETITIVE PRODUCT LIST

(Issued January 12, 2021)

I. INTRODUCTION

The Postal Service seeks to add a new product identified as Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, First-Class Package Service & Parcel Select Contract 8 to the competitive product list.¹ For the reasons discussed below, the Commission approves the Request.

II. BACKGROUND

On December 28, 2020, in accordance with 39 U.S.C. § 3642 and 39 C.F.R. §§ 3020.30-.35,² the Postal Service filed the Request, along with supporting documents. In the Request, the Postal Service asserts that Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, First-Class Package Service & Parcel Select Contract 8 is a competitive product that establishes rates “not of general applicability” within the meaning of 39 U.S.C. § 3632(b)(3). Request at 1. Among the supporting documents, the Postal Service included a copy of the Governors’ Decision authorizing the product, a contract related to the proposed new product, requested changes to the competitive product list, a statement supporting the Request, a certification of compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a), and financial workpapers. In addition, the Postal Service submitted an application for non-public treatment of materials requesting that unredacted portions of the Governors’ Decision and the contract, customer-identifying information, and related financial information remain under seal. Id. Attachment F.

The contract is intended to take effect the later of (a) three business days after the Commission completes its review or (b) the first date of the Postal Service changes published rates for competitive prices of general applicability in 2021.³ It is set to expire on March 31, 2024. Request, Attachment B at 9.

² The regulations cited by the Postal Service have been reorganized, and are now found at 39 C.F.R. §§ 3040.130-135. See Docket No. RM2019-13, Order Reorganizing Commission Regulations and Amending Rules of Practice, January 16, 2020 (Order No. 5407) (effective April 20, 2020). The Postal Service should cite to the reorganized regulations in future filings before the Commission.

³ Request, Attachment B at 9. The changes to published rates for competitive prices of general applicability become effective January 24, 2021. See Docket No. CP2021-28, Order Approving Price Adjustments for Domestic Competitive Products, December 9, 2020 (Order No. 5773).

On December 29, 2020, the Commission issued a notice establishing the two dockets, appointing a Public Representative, and providing interested persons with an opportunity to comment.⁴

III. COMMENTS

The Public Representative filed comments on January 8, 2021.⁵ No other interested person filed comments. The Public Representative concludes that the contract should be categorized as a competitive product and that it should generate sufficient revenue to cover its costs in its first year. PR Comments at 3. She characterizes as reasonable the Postal Service's assertions regarding the classification of the contract as a competitive product. See id. She notes that the contract contains a mechanism for the annual adjustment of prices and that the Commission will have an opportunity to annually review the financial results of the contract. Id. at 4.

IV. COMMISSION ANALYSIS

The Commission has reviewed the Request, the contract, the supporting data filed under seal, and the Public Representative's comments.

Product list requirements. The Commission's statutory responsibilities when evaluating the Request include assigning Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, First-Class Package Service & Parcel Select Contract 8 to either the market dominant or competitive product list. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1); 39 C.F.R. § 3040.134. Before adding a product to the competitive product list, the Commission must determine that the Postal Service does not exercise sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of the product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without the risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1). In addition, the Commission must consider the availability and nature of private sector enterprises engaged in delivering the product, the views of those who use the product, and the likely impact on small business concerns. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(3); 39 C.F.R. §§ 3040.132(f), (g), and (h).

The Postal Service asserts that it provides postal services of the kind provided under the contract in a highly competitive market, that other shippers who provide similar services constrain its bargaining position, and that it can therefore neither raise prices nor decrease service, quality, or output without risking the loss of business to competitors. Request, Attachment D at 2. The Postal Service states that the contract partner supports the Request, that expedited shipping is widely available from private firms, and that the Postal Service is unaware of any small business concerns that could offer comparable services to the contract partner. Id. at 3.

The Commission finds that the Postal Service does not exercise sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of the proposed product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without the risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products. The availability of other private sector providers supports this conclusion. The contract partner and the Public Representative support the addition of the Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, First-Class Package Service & Parcel Select Contract 8 product to the competitive product list. Further, there is no evidence of an adverse impact on small businesses. For these reasons, having considered the relevant statutory and regulatory requirements, the comments filed, and the Postal Service's supporting justification, the Commission finds that Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, First-Class Package Service & Parcel Select Contract 8 is appropriately classified as competitive and is added to the competitive product list.

Cost considerations. Because the Commission finds Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, First-Class Package Service & Parcel Select Contract 8 is a competitive product, the Postal Service must also show that the contract covers its attributable costs, does not cause market dominant products to subsidize competitive products as a whole, and contributes to the Postal Service's institutional costs. 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a); 39 C.F.R. §§ 3035.105 and 3035.107. As long as the revenue generated by the contract exceeds its attributable costs, the contract is unlikely to reduce the contribution of competitive products as a whole or to adversely affect the ability of competitive products as a whole to contribute an appropriate share of institutional costs. In other words, if the contract covers its attributable costs, it is likely to comply with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

Based on a review of the record, the Commission finds that the rates during the first year of the contract should cover the contract's attributable costs. 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)(2). The contract's prices adjust with changes to generally applicable rates. Request, Attachment B at 7-8. Combined with sufficiently high first-year cost coverage, the contract's price adjustments will help ensure that the contract will cover attributable costs in subsequent contract years. For these reasons, the Commission also finds that the contract should not result in competitive products as a whole being subsidized by market dominant products, in accordance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)(1). Similarly, the Commission finds the contract is unlikely to prevent competitive products as a whole from contributing an appropriate share of institutional costs, consistent with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)(3). See also 39 C.F.R. § 3035.107(c). Accordingly, a preliminary review of the contract indicates it is consistent with section 3633(a).

The Commission will review the contract's cost coverage and the contribution of competitive products as a whole to the Postal Service's institutional costs in the Commission's Annual Compliance Determination to ensure that they continue to comply with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

Other considerations. By its terms, the contract becomes effective January 24, 2021. Request, Attachment B at 9; note 3, supra. The contract is scheduled to expire on March 31, 2024, unless, among other things, either party terminates the contract with 180 days' written notice to the other. Request, Attachment B at 9.

The contract also contains provisions that allow the parties to extend the contract for two 1-year periods and two 90-day periods. Id. During the extension periods, prices will be adjusted as described in the contract. See id. at 7-8. The Commission finds the potential extension periods are reasonable because: (1) the contract prices are linked to prices of general applicability; and (2) the extension(s) should assist the Postal Service's contract negotiations by providing additional flexibility.

If the instant contract is terminated prior to the scheduled expiration date, the Postal Service shall promptly file notice of such termination with the Commission in these dockets.

In conclusion, the Commission approves Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, First-Class Package Service & Parcel Select Contract 8 as a new product, and approves the rates for that product in part. Revisions to the competitive product list and the Mail Classification Schedule appear below the signature of this Order and are effective immediately.

V. ORDERING PARAGRAPHS

It is ordered:

1. Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, First-Class Package Service & Parcel Select Contract 8 (MC2021-66 and CP2021-68) is added to the competitive product list as a new product under Negotiated Service Agreements, Domestic. Revisions to the competitive product list and the Mail Classification Schedule appear below the signature of this Order and are effective immediately.
2. The Postal Service shall promptly file notice of the instant contract's termination with the Commission in these dockets if the instant contract terminates prior to the scheduled expiration date.
3. The Secretary shall arrange for publication in the Federal Register of an updated product list reflecting the change made in this Order.

By the Commission.
