Please note that the Postal Service's filing in this matter displays results based on the new organizational structure that the Postal Service began to implement for the new operating unit of Logistics and Processing Operations in late FY 2020. For this filing, the old seven geographic “Areas” are now reported as two regions – the Eastern Region and the Western Region, with six divisions within each of these two regions. Additionally, in accordance with Order No. 5576,¹ the Postal Service’s filing in this matter includes only internal data for International Inbound and Outbound Mail and Return Receipt/Green Card products.
