Docket No. MC2021-78

MOTION OF PARCEL SHIPPERS ASSOCIATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE COMMENTS
(April 29, 2021)

The Parcel Shippers Association (PSA) respectfully requests that the Postal Regulatory Commission (Commission) extend the deadline for filing comments in this docket to not later than May 21, 2021. The current deadline is May 7, 2021. See Order No. 5856 at 4.

This morning, the Commission issued Chairman's Information Request No. 6 (CHIR No. 6) propounding questions suggested by PSA in its motion filed on April 26, 2021.<sup>1</sup> The responses to CHIR No. 6 are due no later than May 6, 2021, one day before the deadline for filing comments. It is likely that some of the data in the anticipated responses will be filed under seal, which will require participant motions for access to non-public information. Time for answers to such motions and Commission consideration could consume another week or more. Obviously, under the current deadline, participants will not have time to consider the responses to CHIR No. 6 and incorporate the information in comments by May 7.

PSA expects the data in these responses will inform its views on “whether, in fact, the Postal Service exercises sufficient market power to avoid losing business to other firms if it sets the price for BPM Parcels substantially above costs, raises prices significantly, decreases quality or decreases output.”<sup>2</sup> They could be important to its comments.

Accordingly, PSA respectfully requests that the Commission extend the deadline for filing comments in this docket to not later than May 21, 2021.

Respectfully submitted:
