Re: United States Postal Service

POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

To Whom it may Concern:

In this time of Electronic communication,
the USPS is more important than EVER. Everyone enjoys getting Mail - especially notes, cards &
packages from loved ones.
Rural areas depend on them, as do the rest of us. What about our military? Mail is especially important.

My only suggestion for change
would be the possible
elimination of Saturday delivery (medications exempt)

If your goal is to save money
this might help.

It is my opinion that the Postal Service does an amazing job and has continued to SERVE all of America during especially difficult times.

The United States Postal Service is a brand TRADITION and must be saved!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Patricia Peick
