SCHEDULE FOR REGULAR AND PREDICTABLE
RATE ADJUSTMENTS

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE FILING OF UPDATED
SCHEDULE OF REGULAR AND PREDICTABLE RATE ADJUSTMENTS
(September 15, 2021)

Rule 3030.102 requires the Postal Service to maintain a Schedule for Regular and Predictable Rate Adjustments with the Postal Regulatory Commission. Consistent with Rule 3030.102, the Postal Service hereby files its updated Schedule, as appended hereto. As indicated therein, the Postal Service will forgo any Market Dominant increase in January 2022 and intends to next adjust Market Dominant prices in July 2022.

As required by Rule 3030.102, the appended Schedule provides estimated filing and implementation dates for future rate adjustments over the next three years and provides information sufficient to predict the amounts of those future rate adjustments. In addition, the Postal Service plans to file updated pricing schedules each year when it publishes its Annual Compliance Report in December.

Respectfully submitted,
UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE

Schedule for Regular and Predictable Rate Adjustments – Effective through Calendar Year 2024

The Postal Service next expects to implement price changes for all Market Dominant classes on July 10, 2022, with the filing occurring in April 2022. The Postal Service intends to be judicious in the use of available pricing authority, but anticipates the prospect that, given our current financial condition, the price change for each Market Dominant class may be required to apply most or all pricing authority available on the date of filing.

The Postal Service expects that, in each subsequent year, it will implement price changes for all Market Dominant classes in January and July of such year, with the filings occurring the preceding October and April, respectively. The Postal Service intends to be judicious in the use of available pricing authority depending on our financial condition, but anticipates the possibility that the price adjustment for each Market Dominant class may be required to apply most or all pricing authority available at the time of filing.
