ORDER ADDING PRIORITY MAIL EXPRESS INTERNATIONAL, PRIORITY MAIL
INTERNATIONAL & FIRST-CLASS PACKAGE INTERNATIONAL SERVICE
CONTRACT 20 TO THE COMPETITIVE PRODUCT LIST

(Issued May 24, 2023)

I. INTRODUCTION

The Postal Service seeks to add a new product identified as Priority Mail Express International, Priority Mail International & First-Class Package International Service

Contract 20 to the Competitive product list.¹ For the reasons discussed below, the Commission approves the Request.

II. BACKGROUND

On May 15, 2023, in accordance with 39 U.S.C. § 3642 and 39 C.F.R. §§ 3040.130-.135, the Postal Service filed the Request, along with supporting documents. In the Request, the Postal Service asserts that Priority Mail Express International, Priority Mail International & First-Class Package International Service Contract 20 is a Competitive product that establishes rates “not of general applicability” within the meaning of 39 U.S.C. § 3632(b)(3). Request at 1. Among the supporting documents, the Postal Service included a copy of the Governors’ Decision authorizing the product, a contract related to the proposed new product, requested changes to the Competitive product list, a statement supporting the Request, a certification of compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a), and financial workpapers. In addition, the Postal Service submitted an application for non-public treatment of materials requesting that unredacted portions of the Governors’ Decision and the contract, customer-identifying information, and related financial information remain under seal. Id. Attachment F.

The Postal Service will notify the mailer of the effective date of the Agreement within 30 days after the Commission completes its review. Request, Attachment B at 3. If the effective date of the Agreement is the first of the month, the Agreement will expire 1 year after the effective date; otherwise, the Agreement will expire on the last day of the month 1 year after the effective date. Id.

¹ USPS Request to Add Priority Mail Express International, Priority Mail International & First-Class Package International Service Contract 20 to Competitive Product List and Notice of Filing Materials Under Seal, May 15, 2023 (Request).

On May 16, 2023, the Commission issued a notice establishing the two dockets, appointing a Public Representative, and providing interested persons with an opportunity to comment.²

III. COMMENTS

The Public Representative filed comments on May 23, 2023.³ No other interested person filed comments. The Public Representative concludes that the contract meets the requirements to be classified as a new Competitive product, and that the contract should generate sufficient revenues to cover costs during its first year. PR Comments at 2-3. She characterizes as reasonable the Postal Service's assertions regarding the classification of the contract as a Competitive product. Id. at 3. She also notes that the Commission will have an opportunity to annually review the financial results of the contract for compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a). Id.

IV. COMMISSION ANALYSIS

The Commission has reviewed the Request, the contract, the supporting data filed under seal, and the Public Representative's comments.

Product list requirements. The Commission's statutory responsibilities when evaluating the Request include assigning Priority Mail Express International, Priority Mail International & First-Class Package International Service Contract 20 to either the Market Dominant or Competitive product list. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1); 39 C.F.R. § 3040.134. Before adding a product to the Competitive product list, the Commission must determine that the Postal Service does not exercise sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of the product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without the risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1). In addition, the Commission must consider the availability and nature of private sector enterprises engaged in delivering the product, the views of those who use the product, and the likely impact on small business concerns. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(3); 39 C.F.R. § 3040.132(f), (g), and (h).

The Postal Service asserts that it provides postal services of the kind provided under the contract in a highly competitive market, that other shippers who provide similar services constrain its bargaining position, and that it can therefore neither raise prices nor decrease service, quality, or output without risking the loss of business to competitors. Request, Attachment D at 3. The Postal Service states that the contract partner supports the Request, that expedited shipping is widely available from private firms, and that the Postal Service is unaware of any small business concerns that could offer comparable services to the contract partner. Id. at 4.

The Commission finds that the Postal Service does not exercise sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of the proposed product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without the risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products. The availability of other private sector providers supports this conclusion. The contract partner and the Public Representative support the addition of the Priority Mail Express International, Priority Mail International & First-Class Package International Service Contract 20 product to the Competitive product list. Further, there is no evidence of an adverse impact on small businesses. For these reasons, having considered the relevant statutory and regulatory requirements, the comments filed, and the Postal Service's supporting justification, the Commission finds that Priority Mail Express International, Priority Mail International & First-Class Package International Service

Contract 20 is appropriately classified as Competitive and is added to the Competitive product list.

Cost considerations. Because the Commission finds Priority Mail Express International, Priority Mail International & First-Class Package International Service Contract 20 is a Competitive product, the Postal Service must also show that the contract covers its attributable costs, does not cause Market Dominant products to subsidize Competitive products as a whole, and contributes to the Postal Service's institutional costs. 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a); 39 C.F.R. §§ 3035.105 and 3035.107. As long as the revenue generated by the contract exceeds its attributable costs, the contract is unlikely to reduce the contribution of Competitive products as a whole or to adversely affect the ability of Competitive products as a whole to contribute an appropriate share of institutional costs. In other words, if the contract covers its attributable costs, it is likely to comply with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

Based on a review of the record, the Commission finds that the rates during the first year of the contract should cover the contract's attributable costs. 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)(2). Thus, the Commission also finds that the contract should not result in Competitive products as a whole being subsidized by Market Dominant products, in accordance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)(1). Similarly, the Commission finds the contract is unlikely to prevent Competitive products as a whole from contributing an appropriate share of institutional costs, consistent with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a)(3). See 39 C.F.R. § 3035.107(c). Accordingly, a preliminary review of the contract indicates it is consistent with section 3633(a).

The Commission will review the contract's cost coverage and the contribution of Competitive products as a whole to the Postal Service's institutional costs in the Commission's Annual Compliance Determination to ensure that they continue to comply with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

Other considerations. By its terms, the Postal Service will notify the mailer of the effective date of the Agreement after the Commission completes its review. Request, Attachment B at 3. If the effective date of the Agreement is the first of the month, the Agreement will expire 1 year after the effective date; otherwise, the Agreement will expire on the last day of the month 1 year after the effective date. Id.

The contract also contains a provision whereby the Postal Service can extend the contract for two 3-month periods if a successor agreement is being prepared and the Commission is notified at least 7 days prior to the contract's expiration date. Id. The Commission finds the two potential 3-month extension periods are reasonable because the extension(s) should assist the Postal Service's contract negotiations by providing additional flexibility.

If the instant contract is terminated prior to the scheduled expiration date, the Postal Service shall promptly file notice of such termination with the Commission in these dockets.

In conclusion, the Commission approves Priority Mail Express International, Priority Mail International & First-Class Package International Service Contract 20 as a new product. Revisions to the Competitive product list and the Mail Classification Schedule appear below the signature of this Order and are effective immediately.

V. ORDERING PARAGRAPHS
