Docket No. C99-4

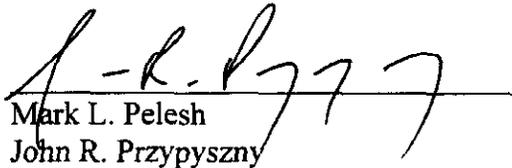

NOTICE OF INTERVENTION OF
ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN PUBLISHERS

The Association of American Publishers (AAP) hereby gives notice of its intervention in the above-captioned proceeding in accordance with Section 39 U.S.C. section 3624 and section 20 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

AAP is the principal representative of the book and journal publishing industry in the United States. Its members include large and small publishing houses as well as university, religious and non-profit publishers. The members of AAP make extensive use of all classes of mail. Because many of AAP's members utilize Bulk Parcel Return Service ("BPRS"), AAP is vitally interested in the outcome of this proceeding and is filing this Notice of Intervention in order to file a Statement in support of the Continuity Shippers Association's complaint in this matter.

Copies of all documents relating to this proceeding should be served upon Mark L. Pelesh and John R. Przepyszny, Drinker Biddle and Reath LLP, 1500 K Street, N.W., Suite 1100, Washington, D.C. 20005.

Respectfully submitted
