PRESIDING OFFICER'S RULING
REQUESTING STATUS OF FILING WITNESS KANEER'S ERRATA

(March 29, 2000)

Presiding Officer's Ruling R2000-1/11 was issued on March 10, 2000, granting the Postal Service's motion for protective conditions on witness Yezer's and witness Kaneer's material contained in USPS-LR-I-241. The Postal Service filed notice on March 14, 2000, informing the Commission that errors were discovered in the Yezer/Kaneer material. The Service hoped to have the errors corrected and the material filed by March 17, 2000. The library reference was filed under protective conditions on March 24, 2000. The cover sheet to the library reference stated that errata to witness Kaneer's testimony and workpapers would be filed shortly. The errata are needed by the Commission for analysis of the Post Office Box service.

RULING

The Postal Service shall file a notice within three business days providing the status and anticipated filing date of the errata to witness Kaneer's testimony and workpapers, and if applicable, to witness Yezer's testimony and supporting materials.

Edward J. Gleiman
Presiding Officer
