Docket No. R2000-1

STAMPS.COM'S ANSWERS TO USPS INTERROGATORY DIRECTED TO THOMAS KUHR (USPS/STAMPS.COM-T2-12)

Stamps.com hereby submits the answers of Thomas C. Kuhr to the interrogatory submitted by the Postal Service, USPS/Stamps.com - T2 - 12, dated June 29, 2000.

Each interrogatory is stated verbatim and is followed by the response.

Respectfully submitted,

David P. Hendel
Wickwire Gavin, PC
8100 Boone Blvd., Suite 700
Vienna, VA 22182-2642

Dated: July 12, 2000

USPS/STAMPS.COM-T-2-12 Please refer to your objection to USPS/STAMPS.COM-T2-10(b)-(e) where you allege that the requested demographic information is “already within the knowledge of the Postal Service.” Please confirm that Stamps.com collects customer demographic information in addition to that submitted to the Postal Service in the IBIP meter license application. If confirmed, please provide the additional information relative to USPS/STAMPS.COM-T2-10(b)-(e).

Response:

Stamps.com asks customers when they first register to use the service what category best describes how they will use the service. Their answer to this question is used to determine whether they are applying for a meter license as an individual or a business. If they choose ‘Personal / Individual use’ their license application is submitted as an individual applicant. If they choose ‘Home Office’ or ‘Home-Based Business’ or ‘Office-Based Business’ then their application is submitted as a business application. Stamps.com does not ask applicants for any further demographic information. The Postal Service processes all IBIP meter license applications and thus has available the information necessary to determine how many customers plan on using the service for personal vs. business purposes.

For the reasons stated in earlier objections, Stamps.com similarly objects here to providing any quantitative demographic breakdown of its customers.

DECLARATION

I, Thomas C. Kuhr, declare under penalty of perjury that the answers to USPS interrogatory USPS/Stamps.com – T2 – 12 are true and correct, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.
