Docket No. R2000-1

E-STAMP CORPORATION'S SUGGESTION OF MOOTNESS OF UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE MOTION TO COMPEL

On July 19, 2000, USPS moved to compel E-Stamp to provide data that would permit an evaluation of the average monthly postage purchased by E-Stamp customers.

On July 25, 2000, in Presiding Officer's Ruling No. R2000-1/97, the Presiding Officer ordered E-Stamp Corporation to provide the average cost of postage and volume per month or quarter for its customers. (page 12) Since the Presiding Officer has already ordered the production of the data sought to be compelled in the USPS Motion, E-Stamp Corporation suggests the Motion is moot. E-Stamp Corporation, of course, will comply with the Presiding Officer's Order.

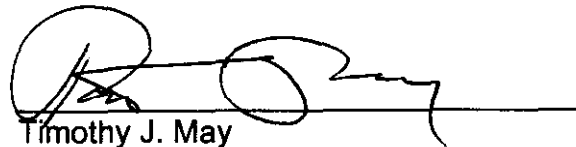

Respectfully submitted,
