Interest of NAPM

NAPM represents presort mailers, the majority of whom are presort service bureaus, on issues and policies of the United States Postal Service ("USPS") which affect their businesses. Presort service bureaus are unique in that they provide the means for small business mailers to participate in the USPS presort programs.

NAPM members are directly affected by the postal rates and related classification which will be established in this proceeding, including without limitation, any first class and standard class presort incentive rates, and related classification and eligibility requirements.

Participation in Hearing

NAPM intends to actively participate in any hearing which may be held on this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PRESORT MAILERS
Through its Counsel

REED SMITH LLP
