Docket No. R2001-1

OFFICE OF THE CONSUMER ADVOCATE
NOTICE OF RE-NUMBERED INTERROGATORY
OCA/USPS-21A
(October 11, 2001)

Counsel for the Postal Service brought to the attention of the Office of the Consumer Advocate (OCA) a numbering problem in OCA's first set of interrogatories, OCA/USPS-1-21, filed September 28, 2001. Both of the last two interrogatories in that set were numbered 21. To rectify the mistake, OCA hereby provides notice that it is re-numbering the second interrogatory "21A" instead of 21. Therefore, please substitute the re-numbered interrogatory below for that initially filed in the first set:

OCA/USPS-21A. Please provide the following information for Priority Mail for the most recent year-long period available. If some of the requested data are only available for a shorter period, please provide the data for the longest possible period.

- (a) Volume by weight increment (please treat flat rate separately) by shape (i.e., by letter-shaped mail, flat-shaped mail, and non-letter/non-flat mail).
- (b) The volume data requested in Part a of this interrogatory further broken down by presort level.
- (c) Proportion and absolute volume that receives its first sort on flat sorting equipment, by weight increment (please treat flat rate separately) by shape (i.e., by letter-shaped mail, flat-shaped mail, and non-letter/non-flat mail).
- (d) The volume data requested in Part c of this interrogatory further broken down by whether the Postal Service applies a bar code.

- (e) The volume data requested in Part c of this interrogatory further broken down by whether the mailer applies a bar code.

Respectfully submitted,

Shelley S. Dreifuss
