Postal Rate and Fee Changes

Docket No. R2001-1

PRESIDING OFFICER'S RULING
GRANTING MOTIONS FOR PROTECTIVE CONDITIONS

(Issued October 23, 2001)

The Postal Service has filed two unopposed motions for protective conditions concerning interrogatories addressed to it by the Office of Consumer Advocate (OCA)¹ and Magazine Publishers of America, Inc. (MPA).² The motions are granted.

1. Joint Motion with the OCA. The Postal Service objects, in whole or in part, to OCA interrogatories OCA/USPS-51-57 on the grounds, generally, that the information requested is irrelevant, commercially sensitive, and would be burdensome to produce. Motion re OCA passim. The Postal Service indicates, however, that it is willing to provide certain information in response to OCA/USPS-53, which seeks studies and surveys concerning customer satisfaction with Postal Service products and services. Id. at 2, 5-7. More specifically, the Postal Service states that it will provide, subject to protective conditions, the business survey results from FY2000 and FY 2001 for questions 1 k, l, m, and o, 13 a-h, 14 a-h, and 15 a-h.³ To that end, the Postal Service indicates it has discussed this matter with the OCA and, as a result, they jointly move for adoption of the protective conditions set forth in POR R2001-1/2, October 12, 2001.⁴ Given the participants' agreement on this limited matter, the joint motion is granted.

¹ Objection of the United States Postal Service to the Office of the Consumer Advocate's Interrogatories OCA/USPS-51-57 and Joint Motion for Protective Conditions, October 15, 2001 (Motion re OCA).

² Partial Objection of United States Postal Service to Interrogatories of Magazine Publishers of America, Inc. to Witness Tayman and Uncontested Motion for Protective Conditions (MPA/USPS-T6-1(a) and (b), 2(a) and (b), and 3(a)), October 15, 2001 (Motion re MPA).

³ Id. at 7. These questions differ from those identified in section III of its pleading. See id. at 10. For purposes of this ruling, the latter are deemed to have been inadvertently referenced.

2. Uncontested Motion re MPA. The Postal Service objects, in part, to MPA interrogatories MPA/USPS-T6-1(a) and (b), 2(a) and (b), and 3(a) on the grounds, generally, that the information requested is site-specific, pre-decisional, and proprietary, and, in addition, that it would be unduly burdensome to produce. Motion re MPA at 1-2. MPA's interrogatories share a common theme. Subpart (a) of each requests calculations of estimated cost savings for certain Postal Service programs, e.g., AFSM 100s and modifications to FSM 1000s.⁵ Subpart (b) seeks Decision Analysis Reports (DARs) concerning these cost savings programs. The Postal Service indicates its willingness to produce redacted DARs subject to protective conditions. Id. at 2, 4.⁶ Further, the Postal Service represents that MPA will not oppose provision of the DARs under protective conditions. As with the joint motion discussed above, the Postal Service moves for adoption of the protective conditions issued in POR R2001-1/2, October 12, 2001. In light of the parties' agreement, the Postal Service's uncontested motion is granted.

RULING

1. The Postal Service's Joint Motion for Protective Conditions, October 15, 2001, concerning OCA/USPS-51-57 is granted.
2. The Postal Service's Uncontested Motion for Protective Conditions, October 15, 2001, concerning MPA/USPS-T6-1(a) and (b), 2(a) and (b), and 3(a) is granted.
3. The attached protective conditions govern access to materials provided in response to this Ruling.

George Omas
Presiding Officer

STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH PROTECTIVE CONDITIONS

The following protective conditions limit access to materials provided in Docket No. R2001-1 by the Postal Service in response to Presiding Officer's Ruling No. R2001-1/3 (hereinafter, "these materials"). Individuals seeking to obtain access to these materials must agree to comply with these conditions, complete the attached certifications, provide the completed certifications to the Commission, and serve them upon counsel for the party submitting the confidential material.

1. Only a person who is either:
 - (a) an employee of the Postal Rate Commission (including the Office of the Consumer Advocate) with a need-to-know; or
 - (b) a participant in Postal Rate Commission Docket No. R2001-1, or a person employed by such participant, or acting as agent, consultant, contractor, affiliated person, or other representative of such participant for purposes related to the litigation of Docket No. R2001-1, shall be granted access to these materials. However, no person involved in competitive decision-making for any entity that might gain competitive advantage from use of this information shall be granted access to these materials. "Involved in competitive decision-making" includes consulting on marketing or advertising strategies, pricing, product research and development, product design, or the competitive structuring and composition of bids, offers or proposals. It does not include rendering legal advice or performing other services that are not directly in furtherance of activities in competition with a person or entity having a proprietary interest in the protected material.
2. No person granted access to these materials is permitted to disseminate them in whole or in part to any person not authorized to obtain access under these conditions.
3. The final date of any participant's access shall be the earlier of:
 - (a) the date on which the Postal Rate Commission issues its recommended decision or otherwise closes Docket No. R2001-1;
 - (b) the date on which that participant formally withdraws from Docket No. R2001-1; or

- (c) the last date on which the person who obtains access is under contract or retained or otherwise affiliated with the Docket No. R2001-1 participant on whose behalf that person obtains. The participant immediately shall notify the Postal Rate Commission and counsel for the party who provided the protected material of the termination of any such business and consulting arrangement or retainer or affiliation that occurs before the closing of the evidentiary record.
- 4. Immediately after the Commission issues its last recommended decision in Docket No. R2001-1, a participant (and any person working on behalf of that participant) who has obtained a copy of these materials shall certify to the Commission:
 - (a) that the copy was maintained in accordance with these conditions (or others established by the Commission); and
 - (b) that the copy (and any duplicates) either have been destroyed or returned to the Commission.
- 5. The duties of any persons obtaining access to these materials shall apply to material disclosed or duplicated in writing, orally, electronically, or otherwise, by any means, format, or medium. These duties shall apply to the disclosure of excerpts from or parts of the document, as well as to the entire document.
- 6. All persons who obtain access to these materials are required to protect the document by using the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of the document as those persons, in the ordinary course of business, would be expected to use to protect their own proprietary material or trade secrets and other internal, confidential, commercially-sensitive, and privileged information.
- 7. These conditions shall apply to any revised, amended, or supplemental versions of materials provided in Docket No. R2001-1.
- 8. The duty of nondisclosure of anyone obtaining access to these materials is continuing, terminable only by specific order of the Commission, or as specified in paragraphs 10 through 15, below.

9. Any Docket No. R2001-1 participant or other person seeking access to these materials by requesting access, consents to these or such other conditions as the Commission may approve.
10. The Postal Service shall clearly mark the following legend on each page, or portion thereof, that the Service seeks to protect under this agreement: 'Confidential-Subject To Protective Conditions In Docket No. R2001-1 Before The Postal Rate Commission' or other markings that are reasonably calculated to alert custodians of the material to its confidential or proprietary nature. Except with the prior written consent of the Postal Service, or as hereinafter provided, no protected information may be disclosed to any person.
11. Any written materials — including but not limited to discovery requests and responses, requests for admission and responses, deposition transcripts and exhibits, pleadings, motions, affidavits, written testimony and briefs — that quote, summarize, or contain materials protected under these protective conditions are also covered by the same protective conditions and certification requirements, and shall be filed with the Commission only under seal. Documents submitted to the Commission as confidential shall remain sealed while in the Secretary's office or such other place as the Commission may designate so long as they retain their status as stamped confidential documents.
12. Any oral testimony, argument or other statements that quote, summarize or otherwise disclose materials protected under these protective conditions shall be received only in hearing sessions limited to Postal Service representatives and other persons who have complied with the terms of the protective order and have signed the attached certifications. The transcript pages containing such protected testimony shall be filed under seal and treated as protected materials under paragraph 11.
13. Notwithstanding the foregoing, protected material covered by paragraphs 11 or 12 may be disclosed to the following persons without their execution of a compliance certificate. Such disclosure shall not exceed the extent necessary to assist in prosecuting this proceeding or any appeals or reconsideration thereof.

- (a) Members of the Commission.
 - (b) Court reporters, stenographers, or persons operating audio or video recording equipment for such court reporters or stenographers at hearings or depositions.
 - (c) Any other person designated by the Commission in the interest of justice, upon such terms as the Commission may deem proper.
 - (d) Reviewing courts and their staffs. Any person seeking to disclose protected information to a reviewing court shall make a good faith effort to obtain protective conditions at least as effective as those set forth in this document. Moreover, the protective conditions set forth herein shall remain in effect throughout any subsequent review unless overridden by the action of a reviewing court.
14. A participant may apply to the Commission for a ruling that documents, categories of documents, or deposition transcripts, stamped or designated as confidential, are not entitled to such status and protection. The Postal Service or other person that designated the document or testimony as confidential shall be given notice of the application and an opportunity to respond. To revoke confidential status, the proponent of declassification must show by a preponderance of the evidence that public disclosure of the materials is consistent with the standards of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 9552(b)(1)-(9), and Commission precedent.
15. Subpoena by Courts or Other Agencies. If a court or other administrative agency subpoenas or orders production of confidential information which a participant has obtained under the terms of this protective order, the target of the subpoena or order shall promptly (within two business days) notify the Postal Service (or other person who designated the document as confidential) of the pendency of the subpoena or order to allow the designating party time to object to that production or seek a protective order.

CERTIFICATION

The undersigned represents that:

Access to materials provided in Docket No. R2001-1 by the Postal Service in response to Presiding Officer's Ruling No. R2001-1/3 (hereinafter, "these materials" or "the information") has been authorized by the Commission. The cover or label of the copy obtained is marked with my name. I agree to use the information only for purposes of analyzing matters at issue in Docket No. R2001-1. I certify that I have read and understand the above protective conditions and am eligible to receive access to materials under paragraph 1 of the protective conditions. I further agree to comply with all protective conditions and will maintain in strict confidence these materials in accordance with all of the protective conditions set out above.
