In Order No. 1334 (issued December 11, 2001), the Commission announced its anticipated course of action with respect to outstanding matters in this docket, which primarily relate to the evidentiary record. No objection has been raised to that proposal.

The Commission is now in receipt of all signature pages executing the proposed Stipulation and Agreement and of Witness Koroma's signed declaration attesting to the truth and accuracy of his testimony (USPS-T-1). See Motion for Consideration of Stipulation and Agreement, December 7, 2001 (Postal Service Motion) and Notice of Filing of Declaration of Witness Koroma, December 12, 2001. Accordingly, the material referenced in paragraph 2 of Part II of the Stipulation and Agreement, consisting of the Docket No. MC2001-3 direct testimony of Postal Service witness Samuel J. Koroma (USPS-T-1), including his signed declaration; the Postal Service Docket No. MC2001-3 Request and Attachment (consisting of a proposed change to Domestic Mail Classification Schedule §443.1a); and the Stipulation and Agreement (including all signature pages) is hereby entered into the evidentiary record of this proceeding.

As the participants and the Commission have had an adequate opportunity to review the aforementioned material, the evidentiary record in this proceeding is now closed.

It is ordered:

1. The material identified in the body of this ruling is hereby entered into the evidentiary record of this proceeding.
2. The record in this proceeding is now closed.
