Docket No. MC2004-5

RESPONSE OF NATIONAL NEWSPAPER ASSOCIATION
TO COMMISSION ORDER 1419
(Sept. 27, 2004)

In its order Number 1419 of September 23, 2004, the Commission asked the parties to declare their intentions for cross-examination and filing of briefs.

The National Newspaper Association would prefer to settle this matter without hearings or briefs. However, in light of the interest of other parties in a more fully-developed record, NNA wishes to reserve its right to file a brief and a reply brief if the need arises after hearings and also to participate in any follow-up cross examination of Postal Service witnesses, if needed.

Respectfully submitted,
