POSTAL RATE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20268-0001

POSTAL RATE AND FEE CHANGES
PURSUANT TO PUBLIC LAW 108-18

Docket No. R2005-1

REVISED RESPONSES OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
TO INTERROGATORIES OF DAVID B. POPKIN (ERRATA)
(DBP/USPS-123 and 124)
(July 14, 2005)

The United States Postal Service hereby provides its revised institutional responses to interrogatories DBP/USPS-123 and 124. As noted in the Postal Service's response to DBP/USPS-202, the Postal Service's original responses to these interrogatories incorrectly stated that the Postal Service does not produce a list of ZIP Codes that have Sunday/holiday street delivery of Express Mail and a list of ZIP Codes that have Sunday/holiday post office box delivery of Express Mail. These responses have therefore been revised, and the respective lists have been attached.

Each interrogatory is stated verbatim and is followed by the revised response.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE

By its attorneys:

Daniel J. Foucheaux, Jr.
Chief Counsel, Ratemaking

RESPONSE OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
TO DAVID B. POPKIN INTERROGATORY (REVISED 7/14/05)

DBP/USPS-123. Please refer to your response to DBP/USPS-71 subparts e through g.

- (a) Please confirm, or explain if you are unable to do so, that the Postal Service provides a listing of those offices that will deliver Express Mail on a Sunday or holiday to a street address and that this data is also incorporated in the POS terminal so the retail window clerk will be able to advise the customer the expected date of delivery.
- (b) Please provide a copy of the latest listing of these offices.

RESPONSE:

(a) Confirmed that the Postal Service produces a list of those 5-digit ZIP Codes that have Sunday/holiday street delivery of Express Mail. This list is not incorporated into the POS ONE terminals, however; instead, the POS ONE terminals are supplied a list of ZIP Codes where street deliveries are not made on Sundays and holidays. The system itself provides the expected date of delivery, which takes into account the presence or absence of the destination ZIP Code on the no-delivery list.

(b) Please see the attached.

RESPONSE OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
TO DAVID B. POPKIN INTERROGATORY (REVISED 7/14/05)

DBP/USPS-124. Please refer to your response to DBP/USPS-71 subparts e through g.

- (a) Please confirm, or explain if you are unable to do so, that the Postal Service provides a listing of those offices that will deliver Express Mail to a post office box on a Sunday or holiday and that this data is also incorporated in the POS terminal so the retail window clerk will be able to advise the customer the expected date of delivery.
- (b) Please provide a copy of the latest listing of these offices.

RESPONSE:

(a) Confirmed that the Postal Service produces a list of those 5-digit ZIP Codes that have Sunday/holiday delivery of Express Mail to post office boxes. This list is not incorporated into the POS ONE terminals, however; instead, the POS ONE terminals receive the closing times of all postal facilities. The expected delivery date and time are checked against the closing time at the destination to determine whether the facility will be open; if the destination facility closes before the time delivery would be made or is not open at all on that day, the scheduled date of delivery is advanced to the next day that the unit will be open. The system itself provides the scheduled date of delivery, which takes into account the closing time at the destination.

(b) Please see the attached.
