Docket No. N2006-1

AMERICAN POSTAL WORKERS UNION, AFL-CIO, NOTICE OF ERRATA IN OPPOSITION TO USPS MOTION TO ADOPT PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE AND SPECIAL RULES OF PRACTICE AND APWU REQUEST FOR ALTERNATIVE SCHEDULE INCLUDING HEARING
(March 20, 2006)

The American Postal Workers Union, AFL-CIO (APWU) hereby files this notice correcting an errata in its March 17, 2006 Opposition to the United States Postal Service's Motion to Adopt Procedural Schedule and Special Rules of Practice and APWU Request for Alternative Schedule Including Hearing.

A clerical error resulted in a misquote of USPS Library Reference N2006-1/5 p. 000040 on pages 10-11 of the APWU's opposition. This misquote reads:

...the THP of 599,352 did not reflect the actual volume that would be processed in 060. It was written up in the notes, but was not reflected on Sheet 4a. The TPH volume for 060 should have been 2,928,963 pieces. Tacoma does not have the available runtime on the AFSM 100 to process all of the Olympia 331 volume. The Olympia 331 TPH volume of 5,862,254 pieces. The distribution will be as follows:

This quote, while accurate, is incomplete. The correct and complete quote should read:

...the THP of 599,352 did not reflect the actual volume that would be processed in 060. It was written up in the notes, but was not reflected on Sheet 4a. The TPH volume for 060 should have been 2,928,963 pieces. Tacoma does not have the available runtime on the AFSM 100 to process all of the Olympia 331 volume. The Olympia 331 TPH volume of 5,862,254 pieces. The distribution will be as follows:

op 331 – 1,940,750 pieces op 441 – 1,588,004 op 060 –2,333,500

If you check the previous sheets, you will see that all of the 331 volume was not accounted for. (at 00040 Note 2)

No party will be prejudiced by this correction. All of the text was included in the original document; however, it was incorrectly formatted such that a portion of the text was inadvertently not included in the indented quote.

Corrected copies of pages 10-11 of the March 17, 2006 Opposition are attached.

Respectfully submitted,
