Docket No. C2004-2

MOTION OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
FOR LATE ACCEPTANCE OF ITS NOTICE OF INTENT TO SUBMIT REBUTTAL TESTIMONY
(June 29, 2006)

Presiding Officer's Ruling No. C2004-2/2 (May 5, 2006) set June 22nd as the due date for submitting notices of intent to submit rebuttal testimony. As stated in a notice filed separately, the Postal Service does intend to file rebuttal testimony. The Postal Service hereby requests late acceptance of its notice of intent. The failure to file a timely notice is simply a manifestation of focus on the July 7 due date for testimony, and insufficient attention to the further details of the scheduling order. While the Postal Service regrets this oversight, given prior statements regarding its expectation to file rebuttal testimony (noted on page 2 of Ruling No. C2004-2/2), it would appear that no prejudice would result from granting this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE

By its attorney:
