NOTICE OF UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE OF FILING ERRATUM TO ATTACHMENT 1 TO NOTICE OF UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE OF FILING
FUNCTIONALLY EQUIVALENT INBOUND DIRECT ENTRY CONTRACTS
NEGOTIATED SERVICE AGREEMENT

(June 30, 2009)

The United States Postal Service is today filing a replacement page 16 of Attachment 1 to its Notice of Filing Functionally Equivalent Inbound Direct Entry Contracts Negotiated Service Agreement, which the Postal Service filed on June 29, 2009. A footnote, which appears in the table on page 16 of the original filing, contained an error in the rate for keys and identification devices. That rate should be $0.74, not $0.70 as originally represented in the instrument filed with the Commission yesterday. A copy of revised page 16 of Attachment 1 is attached to this notice.

The Postal Service has arranged with P&T Express Mail Service Joint Stock Company (VNPE) to make this correction in the contract. The correction is not expected to affect the contract in any material way.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
By its attorneys:

ANNEX 1 – Specific Price Information

The prices listed in this Annex for Options 1 and 2 are contingent upon any and all necessary approvals for corresponding USPS rates by the USPS Governors, the USPS Board of Governors, and/or the U.S. Postal Regulatory Commission. If the corresponding prices are approved at different amounts from those appearing below, the approved prices shall apply and the prices listed below shall be modified accordingly.

The prices listed in this Annex for Option 2 include Delivery Confirmation service.

All prices listed in this Annex apply to products prepared in accordance with the corresponding requirements and/or description in Annex 2, including any required use of specially-designed USPS packaging.

Other products may become available as requested.

Option 1: First-Class Mail Parcel

The following rates are applicable regardless of U.S. destination or point of entry and exclusive of any applicable special services.
