NOTICE OF FILING UNDER 39 U.S.C. § 404(d)

TO THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE:

Please take notice that on October 6, 2009, documents were filed with the Postal Regulatory Commission by the Committee for the Citizens and Customers of Cranberry, Pa.16319 Post Office. The documents contain objections to the closing of the Post Office at Cranberry, Pennsylvania 16319. While not necessarily in the form required by the Commission's rules of practice, 39 CFR § 3001.110 et seq., the document may nevertheless ultimately be found to constitute an appeal appropriate for consideration under 39 U.S.C. § 404(d). A copy of the document is attached for reference.

This notice is advisory only and is being furnished so that the Postal Service may begin assembling the administrative record in advance of any formal appeal proceedings held upon the alleged (closing/consolidation) for transmittal pursuant to 39 CFR § 3001.113(a) (requiring the filing of the record within 15 days of the filing with the Commission of a petition for review).

POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Dear Postal Regulatory Commission,

The Cranberry Post Office Doors were closed September 12, 2009.

A petition has been circulated by the patrons of this office to have the decision reversed, and to keep the office open and located within the Village Of Cranberry.

Cranberry Pa. 16319 was established in 1835. Its name came from the Cranberry bog nearby. The Post Office has been in several buildings over 174 years. All were located within sight of the intersection of RT. 322 and RT. 257. It is a very convenient location for travelers passing through. The intersection of these two major roadways makes Cranberry like the hub of Venango County.

Cranberry is no longer a small Pennsylvania town. There was a great change in Cranberry in 1980 when the Cranberry Mall was built North of RT. 322 and West of RT. 257. Then in 1995, a Wal-Mart Supercenter was built South of RT. 322 and West of Cranberry Rockland RD. . Many business, including the Strip Mall businesses, five banks, a Social Security Office, Restaurants, several Service Stations, a Holiday Inn Express Hotel, a Child Development Center, a State Liquor Store, etc. have added to the growth of Cranberry. There is potential for more growth both with businesses and residential.

We would appreciate any help in keeping the CRANBERRY POST OFFICE located in THE VILLAGE OF CRANBERRY as it has been for the past 174 years.

Sincerely,

The Committee for the Citizens and Customers of Cranberry, Pa. 16319 Post Office

Cranberry post office to close Sept. 12

► Those with P.O. boxes will pick up their mail at the Seneca post office on Meadow Road.

By MATT CARROLL
Staff writer

The Cranberry post office at Route 322 and Cranberry-Rockland Road is set to close its doors Sept. 12.

Unable to reach a new agreement with its landlord and without funds to seek another building, the U.S. Postal Service will suspend its Cranberry location.

Cranberry residents will still receive rural delivery, but those with post office boxes will pick up their mail at the Seneca post office on Meadow Road.

Postal Service officials were on hand Wednesday evening to explain the transition to dozens of concerned Cranberry residents gathered at the Seneca fire hall.

"We are trying to make this as seamless as possible," said Junius Johnson, manager of post office operations for the area. "The only difference you should see is the change in your post office."

Residents who once picked up their mail at the Cranberry post office can either opt for delivery to their homes, or make the trip to Seneca, Johnson said.

Those with existing post office boxes in Cranberry will not even have to change their addresses as the boxes will be transferred to the Seneca post office.

The cost to rent a post office box had been the same at both locations.

Mail sent to both Seneca and Cranberry addresses will now arrive at the Seneca post office. The mail will be sorted separately, officials said.

Some residents — many of whom have lived in the same homes for decades — expressed concern about losing their Cranberry addresses in the future.

Johnson said the promise to keep the Cranberry addresses "is not a limited guarantee, this is how it is going to be."

See CRANBERRY, Page 8

Because of those cuts, a replacement post office could not be opened, Tomko said.

He added, however, that the Cranberry location would have remained open if the sides could have agreed on a lease.

Tomko said the Postal Service offered the owner of the building a five-year lease for $17,500, an increase on the previous lease. He said the owner was seeking almost double that amount.

The Cranberry post office will be suspended, but not officially closed. Officials explained that post offices can be suspended for years before they are permanently closed.

Tomko said the post office could also be reopened, but added "unless things change with our financial situation, I don't see that happening in the immediate future."

Officials said anyone who wants to change from a post office box to rural delivery should contact the Cranberry or Seneca post offices.

Others at the meeting expressed concerns about the extended trip to pick up mail — it is 2.1 miles from the Cranberry location to the Seneca post office, Johnson said.

"There is a very large number of elderly people that this is an issue for — especially in winter time," said Larry Snow, an area resident and business owner.

Russ Tomko, postmaster in Bedford, told the crowd that the Postal Service had little choice other than to close the Cranberry location.

Postal Service officials could not come to an agreement with the landlord of the Cranberry facility to extend the lease.

"Because of our financial situation — and I'm sure most of you are aware of that — we are not replacing facilities anywhere in the country," Tomko said.

Officials said the Postal Service faces a $7 billion deficit this year alone. They said the service has to make cuts to meet the shortfall.

July 31, 2009

Dear Postal Customer:

The lease at the Cranberry Post Office will expire on September 18, 2009 and due to the lessor refusing to negotiate a new lease at "fair market" price, it will be necessary to suspend services at the close of business on Friday, September 11, 2009. This change will not lead to a formal proposal to permanently close the office, unless we conclude that the community would still be afforded the maximum degree of regular and effective postal services. A community meeting will be held on Wednesday, August 19th at 7:00pm at the Seneca Volunteer Fire Company, 3490 State Route 257, Seneca, PA to address your concerns.

Effective Saturday, September 12, 2009, delivery and retail services will be provided by the Seneca Post Office. Customers presently receiving rural delivery will not experience a change in service, with the possible exceptions of having to pick up undeliverable parcels and accountable mail at the Seneca Post Office. The carriers from Cranberry will be relocated to the Seneca Post Office. Those customers who have a post office box at Cranberry will need to pick up their mail at the Seneca office. Current box patrons may request rural delivery if this form of delivery would be more convenient.

Rural delivery eliminates the daily visit to the post office. This is particularly beneficial to senior citizens, people with disabilities, and folks who have work schedules that coincide with the hours that the Post Office is open. You will have 24-hour access to your mail. In addition, the rural carrier can provide all the retail services provided at the Cranberry Post Office. Enclosed is information about some of the services available from the carrier. Most transactions do not require meeting a carrier at the mailbox. Stamp Order envelopes and Money Order Application forms are available for your convenience. Rural patrons also have the option of placing a note in the mailbox, along with proper payment, requesting stamps and services that will be provided by the carrier. If you are not available to sign for a piece of accountable mail or accept a large parcel at the time of delivery, the carrier will return the item to the Seneca Post Office. You may pick up the article at the Seneca Post Office, request redelivery on another day convenient to you, or authorize the carrier to deliver the item to another person. If appropriate, post office box refunds will be provided by the Cranberry Postmaster.

Customers who wish to obtain post office box service may do so at the Seneca Post Office, located two miles away. The Seneca Post Office has lobby access 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Window service hours at Seneca are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 800 a.m. to Noon on Saturday. Post office boxes are available at this location at the same fees.

If you have any questions concerning the placement of rural mailboxes or the services available to you through the rural carrier, please contact the Seneca postmaster at (814) 677-2015 or the Cranberry postmaster at (814) 676-3769.

I realize with change there is always concern. A decision to permanently discontinue operations at the Cranberry Post Office has not yet been made. In the near future, we will be contacting you to explain our long term plans and solicit your comments. In the interim, we are confident that employees at the Seneca Office will continue to provide the efficient delivery and service you deserve.

Sincerely,

SUMMARY OF POST OFFICE CHANGE REGULATIONS

Certain regulations based on federal law apply when postal managers propose to replace a post office with an alternate form of postal service. These regulations are designed to ensure that the reasons for proposing such changes in postal service are fully disclosed at a stage when customers can make helpful contributions toward a final decision. The full text of the statutory regulations appears in Title 39, United States Code, Section 404(b), while the implementing regulations appear in Title 39, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 241.3.

An initial investigation and any subsequent formal proposal to discontinue a post office originate with postal field managers responsible for post offices in that area. The proposal must explain the services recommended as substitutes and the rationale that supports this recommendation. The written proposal is prominently posted for 60 days at affected post offices, along with an "Invitation for Comments," which formally invites customer comments. At the end of the 60-day comment period, additional review is made at lower and upper levels of postal management.

When a final decision is made at Postal Headquarters in Washington, DC, that decision is posted in affected post offices for 30 days, during which customers may appeal the decision to the Postal Rate Commission in Washington, DC. The Postal Rate Commission has 120 days to consider and decide an appeal. Even without an appeal, no post office may be closed sooner than 60 days after the public posting of the final decision.

POST OFFICE ON WHEELS SERVICES AVAILABLE FROM RURAL AND HIGHWAY CONTRACT ROUTE CARRIERS

You can eliminate almost all trips to the Post Office, because doing business with the Postal Service is as close as your mailbox. The carrier can provide virtually all postal services to you, and most transactions do not require meeting the carrier at the mailbox. Some of the most frequently used services are:

MAILING PACKAGES

Carriers will accept packages at the mailbox without a customer being present, provided the postage is fully prepaid, and the customer is known to reside or conduct business at that collection point. The package MUST have a matching return address that is the same as the collection point. If postage has not been applied, estimate the amount of postage needed and leave the money in the mailbox. If insurance is desired, the value of the contents must be specified. The carrier will take the package to the Post Office, and it will be weighed to determine the appropriate rate. The package will be mailed that same day. The carrier will leave the customer's change and insurance receipt, if appropriate, in the mailbox on the next delivery day.

PURCHASING STAMPS BY MAIL

The Stamps by Mail program provides customers the opportunity to purchase stamps, envelopes, and postal cards by using Form 3227-R, Stamp Purchase Order (Rural), available from the Post Office or the carrier. Commemorative stamps and stamp-collecting products are also available. The customer addresses the postage paid order form envelope, encloses payment by personal check or postal money order made payable to the United States Postal Service, and mails the form (postage-free) or leaves it in the mailbox for the carrier to pick up. Most orders are processed overnight, and some immediately.

PURCHASING POSTAL MONEY ORDERS

Customers may purchase money orders by meeting the carrier at the mailbox, completing an application, and paying the carrier (in cash) the price of the money order, plus the fee. The carrier gives the customer a receipt for the application. The money order is completed when the carrier returns to the Post Office, and a money order receipt is left in the customer's mailbox on the next delivery day. Most customers provide the carrier with a stamped, self-addressed envelope in which the completed money order is mailed to its destination. If customers prefer, the completed money orders will be returned for verification on the next delivery day.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Special services such as Certified, Registered, Express Mail, Delivery Confirmation, Signature Confirmation, and COD may be obtained from the carrier by leaving a note in the mailbox, along with the appropriate payment. The carrier will provide the services that day and leave a customer receipt in the mailbox on the next delivery day.

HOLDING MAIL

Customers who will be away for an extended time, such as a vacation, may request that their mail be held at the Post Office during their absence. Upon return, the customer asks the Post Office to resume delivery.

Welcome to Rural Route (RR) Service

Today it is difficult to envision the isolation and loneliness that were the lot of the farmer and his family in early America. The typical farm family had no telephone, automobile, radio, or television. Farmers' only links to the outside world were the mail and the newspapers that came by mail to the nearest Post Office. Because the mail had to be picked up, this meant a trip to the Post Office, often taking a day of travel. The farmer often delayed picking up his mail for days, weeks, or even months until the trip could be combined with one for supplies, food, or equipment.

John Wanamaker was the first Postmaster General to advocate rural route (RR) delivery. Although funds were appropriated a month before he left office in 1893, subsequent Postmaster Generals postponed starting the new service. It was not until 1896 before experimental rural delivery routes began in West Virginia, with carriers working out of Post Offices in Charles Town, Halltown, and Uvilla. The West Virginia experiment with rural free delivery was launched in relative obscurity and in an atmosphere of hostility. Critics of the plan maintained that it was too impractical and expensive to have a postal carrier trudge over rutted roads and through forests to attempt mail delivery in all kinds of weather.

The farmers, on the other hand, were delighted with the new service and with the new world that was being opened up to them. After receiving free delivery for a few months, one observer said that it would take away a part of life to give up the service. Another farmer looked back on his life and estimated that in 15 years he had traveled 12,000 miles going to and from the Post Office to get his mail.

One of the by-products of rural-free delivery was the stimulation it provided to the development of the great American system of roads and highways. A prerequisite for rural delivery was good roads. After hundreds of petitions for rural delivery were turned down by the Post Office because of unserviceable and inaccessible roads, local governments spent $72 million on bridges, culverts, and other improvements. In one Indiana County, farmers themselves paid more than $2,600 to grade and gravel a road to qualify for RR service.

The impact of RR service as a cultural and social agent for millions of Americans was even more striking, and in this respect rural delivery is still a vital link between industrial and rural America.

Today there are more than 77,476 rural routes covering 3.2 million miles that serve 33 million boxes. Rural delivery no longer serves just farmers in remote areas of the country. Modern rural routes provide daily service to high-rise office buildings, shopping malls, and large apartment buildings in and around large cities.

In many rural areas, Highway Contract Routes (HCR) have been established. These routes often provide the same services as a rural route and are administered by the Postal Service to ensure compliance with the contract and with postal regulations.

RR and HCR services continue to grow, binding this great nation together, and meeting the mailing needs of rural America.
