Docket No. RM2009-11

MOTION OF THE PUBLIC REPRESENTATIVE FOR LEAVE TO FILE COMMENTS IN RESPONSE TO POSTAL SERVICE REPORT ON PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT OF FORWARDED MAIL

(December 16, 2009)

The Public Representative hereby requests leave to file comments in response to the Postal Service's report on the performance measurement of forwarded mail. That report, dated December 10, 2009, accompanies a Postal Service motion to file the report.<sup>1</sup> In its motion, the Postal Service requests that the Commission give consideration to the report as the "report has a bearing on issues raised in initial comments in this docket." USPS Motion at 1-2.

The Public Representative does not object to the Postal Service's motion, or the inclusion of the accompanying report as comments into the record of the instant proceeding. Nevertheless, the Postal Service's report deserves comment. The Public Representative hereby moves that its comments on the Postal Service's report be accepted into the record of this docket.
