

BEFORE THE
POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20268-0001

SIX-DAY TO FIVE-DAY STREET DELIVERY
AND RELATED SERVICE CHANGES

DOCKET NO. N2010-1

INTERROGATORIES OF DAVID B. POPKIN TO THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE [DBP/USPS-27 through 28]

David B. Popkin hereby requests the United States Postal Service to answer, fully and completely, the following interrogatories pursuant to the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. To the extent that a reference is made in the response to a Library Reference, I would appreciate receiving a copy of the reference since I am located at a distance from Washington, DC. Any reference to testimony or other sources should indicate the page and line numbers. The instructions contained in the interrogatories DFC/USPS-T1-1-6 in Docket MC2006-7 dated February 23, 2007, are incorporated herein by reference. I am available for informal discussion to respond to your request to "clarify questions and to identify portions of discovery requests considered overbroad or burdensome."

April 13, 2010

Respectfully submitted,

N20101B27

DAVID B. POPKIN, POST OFFICE BOX 528, ENGLEWOOD, NJ 07631-0528

DBP/USPS-27                    [a]    Please confirm, or explain if you are unable to confirm, that for purposes of the EXFC program, Saturday will be a normal day [as it presently is] if the recipient receives their mail delivery at a post office box.

[b]    Please confirm, or explain if you are unable to confirm, that for purposes of the EXFC program, Saturday will not be counted as a potential delivery day if the recipient receives their mail delivery at other than a post office box.

DBP/USPS-28                    Under the proposed procedure if a letter is mailed in New Jersey on a Friday and is delivered to a street address in California the following Monday, how many days will that letter count towards reporting the days to delivery category? Please explain your response.
