

BEFORE THE
POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20268-0001

SIX-DAY TO FIVE-DAY STREET DELIVERY
AND RELATED SERVICE CHANGES

DOCKET NO. N2010-1

INTERROGATORY OF DAVID B. POPKIN TO THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE [DBP/USPS-29]

David B. Popkin hereby requests the United States Postal Service to answer, fully and completely, the following interrogatory pursuant to the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. To the extent that a reference is made in the response to a Library Reference, I would appreciate receiving a copy of the reference since I am located at a distance from Washington, DC. Any reference to testimony or other sources should indicate the page and line numbers. The instructions contained in the interrogatories DFC/USPS-T1-1-6 in Docket MC2006-7 dated February 23, 2007, are incorporated herein by reference. I am available for informal discussion to respond to your request to "clarify questions and to identify portions of discovery requests considered overbroad or burdensome."

April 26, 2010

Respectfully submitted,

N20101C29

DBP/USPS-29 [a] Do you believe that the elimination of street deliveries of mail on Saturdays while maintaining delivery at post office boxes will result in increased sales of post office boxes? Please elaborate on the answer you provide.

[b] Have any studies been conducted of this condition? If so, please provide information and full details on the study.

[c] Please provide your best estimate of the annual savings resulting both from the added revenue as well as the reduction of street delivery costs. Please provide details of your calculation.
