Docket No. N2010-1

MOTION OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
FOR LATE ACCEPTANCE OF FILING OF RESPONSES
TO POPKIN INTERROGATORIES DBP/USPS-1-24 AND 26-28
(April 28, 2010)

The United States Postal Service hereby moves for late acceptance today of the filing of its responses to the following interrogatories of David Popkin: DBP/USPS-1 through 24 and DBP/USPS-26 through 28. The responses were due to have been filed yesterday and are one calendar and business day late. The delay in the filing of the entire set of responses was caused by the last-minute discovery of the omission of one of the responses in the set, and a failed gamble that that particular response could be inserted into the set and the completed document finalized and filed before the unforgiving 4:30 deadline. For those of your scoring at home, it was DBP/USPS-20.

The Postal Service regrets the delay, but considers that no party has suffered any prejudice as a result of the responses being filed at the beginning of the next business day.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
