We the people of Holmes Mill, which is in Harlan County, Ky. Are very disappointed that you are considering closing our post office, which has been a landmark and very convenient for the people of Holmes Mill for many years. It would be very discouraging to see this landmark removed.

There are many disabling factors involved, such as service being provided for many years to the disabled as well as the able-bodied people of the community. Please reconsider the closing of our local home post office.

Louie Hamblin, retired postmaster

P.S. It would be very helpful if our post office could open two or three days a week.
