

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20268-0001

Retail Access Optimization Initiative

Docket No. N2011-1

PRESIDING OFFICER'S RULING
GRANTING MOTION FOR ACCESS TO NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION

(Issued September 19, 2011)

On September 12, 2011, the Center for Study of Responsive Law (CSRL) filed a motion to allow certain of its representatives, consultants, and attorneys to review the materials filed in the non-public annex of this docket. CSRL requests access to library references USPS-LR-N2011-1/NP3, NP4, NP5, NP6, NP7, NP8, and NP9.¹

The CSRL Motion is filed pursuant to 39 CFR 3007.40 and rule 21 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. The individuals to be granted access are identified and have signed the standard protective conditions. CSRL asserts that it is not a competitor of the Postal Service and will not make use of the materials to competitively harm the Postal Service. The Postal Service did not file an objection to the CSRL Motion.

¹ Center for Study of Responsive Law, Motion for Access to Non-Public Information Identified as USPS-LR-N2011-1/NP3, NP4, NP5, NP6, NP7, NP8, and NP9, September 12, 2011 (CSRL Motion).

RULING

The Center for Study of Responsive Law, Motion for Access to Non-Public Information Identified as USPS-LR-N2011-1/NP3, NP4, NP5, NP6, NP7, NP8, and NP9, filed September 12, 2011, is granted.

Ruth Y. Goldway
Presiding Officer