I am aware of the Historical value of the Bentonville, Ohio Post Office and Mrs. Verma Naylor who passed away in July 2010 was the oldest Postmaster in the United States.
Aloud was at West Union Post Office at the first of the month a couple months ago when a women came in at just ^{the right} time she was. Luckily her mail carrier was there, she asked if she received any mail the mail carrier said yes because she remembered she only got one piece of mail someone had stole it out of the mail box right in front of her house. which would be alleviated with a box at the Post Office. Bentonville, Ohio's Post Office is the only route I can get mail delivered to where I need it to go the next day in Cincinnati.
