Pat Ramsey

July 31 & Aug 1

Its been almost 18 years since Pat did all the harmonics work on the Johnny Winter LP "White Hot and Blue." Since then he has been considered by many to be a harp player's harp player. Now Pat stops out with his first solo effort, It's About Time.

Bobby Stringer

August 7 & 8

Miami based soul singer with 20 years of experience recording star he stands 6-ft tall and repetitions of doing music from 50s, 60s & 70s as well as original music. And performed in the group called The Great Pretenders. He also performs with groups or as a solo artist. Bobby Stringer is a first time performer at the Blues Ship On Top. We are expecting one of the best shows ever. So come out and show your support.

Bull Dog Johnny and his band August 14 & 15

Bull Dog Johnny and his band came in during the week and did such a wonderful performance. We are delighted to have them come in as a headliner and perform a weekend. A soulman production.

Lucky Peterson

August 21 & 22

Lucky Peterson is a multi-instrumentalist, multi-talented, 1st call studio player and dynamic entertainer and you know this "Blues Lover". James "Big Baby Boy" Peterson coming back home to perform at the legendary Blues Ship On Top in Ybor City. Everybody come and bring a friend or 5 and be there.

Roach Thompson

August 28 & 29

Roach Thomson have dominated the Florida blues scene, winning several national and state awards, including the prestigious W.C. Florida Black Music Award, The B.B. King Lucille Award, and the Jammy Awards for Best Blues Band in Florida two years on a row. They have also shared the stage with John Lee Hooker, Koko Taylor and Lucky Peterson.
