Docket No. MC98-1

PRESIDING OFFICER'S RULING
SCHEDULING THE APPEARANCE OF WITNESSES

(February 2, 1999)

On February 1, 1999, Pitney Bowes filed a Notice of Intention to Conduct Cross-Examination of Postal Service witnesses Lim, Plunkett and Seckar during hearings to receive Postal Service testimony concerning the ongoing market test of Mailing Online scheduled for February 5, 1999 at 9:30 am. Simultaneously, Pitney Bowes submitted a Notice Concerning Witnesses indicating that the Postal Service expressed a preference for witnesses Plunkett and Seckar to appear at the beginning of the day. Pitney Bowes indicates that it has contacted counsel for the Office of the Consumer Advocate and Mail Advertising Services Association, and that there is no objection to the Postal Service preference. To the extent feasible, designations of written cross-examination, and additional notices of intent to conduct oral cross-examination should be submitted on or before February 3, 1999.

RULING

The order of appearance of witnesses at the February 5, 1999, hearing is as follows:

Plunkett (USPS-T-5)
Seckar (USPS-T-2)
Lim (USPS-ST-9)
