Docket No. MC98-1

PRESIDING OFFICER'S RULING SCHEDULING
THE APPEARANCE OF WITNESSES

(March 3, 1999)

The procedural schedule in this case provides for evidentiary hearings to receive the cases-in-chief of intervenors and the Office of the Consumer Advocate, including the rebuttal to the Postal Service, to begin on March 10, 1999. Having reviewed the notices of intent to cross-examine this evidence, I find that two days of hearings should be sufficient.

RULING

1. On March 10, 1999, hearings will be held to receive the testimony of witnesses Schuh (MASA-T-1), Jurgena (MASA-T-2), and Prescott (MASA-T-3).
2. On March 11, 1999, hearings will be held to receive the testimony of witnesses Callow (OCA-T-100) and Collins (OCA-T-200).
