Notice of Market-Dominant
Price Adjustment

Docket No. R2015-4

ORDER AMENDING ORDER NOS. 2365 AND 2388

(Issued April 7, 2015)

On January 15, 2015, the Postal Service filed notice of a market dominant price adjustment, proposing price adjustments and associated mail classification changes for all five classes of market dominant mail.<sup>1</sup> The Postal Service announced that it planned to implement these price adjustments on April 26, 2015. Id. at 1.

In Order Nos. 2365 and 2388, the Commission approved the proposed price adjustments and mail classification changes for the First-Class Mail and Special Services classes respectively.<sup>2</sup> In both orders, the second ordering paragraph states: “Accepted revisions to the Mail Classification Schedule appear below the signature of this Order and are effective April 26, 2015.” Order No. 2365 at 17; Order No. 2388 at 13.

<sup>2</sup> Order on Price Adjustments for First-Class Products and Related Mail Classification Changes, February 24, 2015 (Order No. 2365); Order on Price Adjustments for Special Services Products and Related Mail Classification Changes, March 10, 2015 (Order No. 2388).

On March 31, 2015, the Postal Service filed a notice in this proceeding, announcing that the implementation of the price and classification changes approved in Order Nos. 2365 and 2388 would be delayed.<sup>3</sup> The Postal Service stated that it would announce a revised implementation date when it submits revised rates for Standard Mail, Periodicals, and Package Services. Id. at 2.

In light of the Postal Service’s delayed implementation of the price adjustments and mail classification changes for First-Class Mail and Special Services, the Commission suspends revisions to the Mail Classification Schedule arising from Order Nos. 2365 and 2388 until the revised implementation date.

It is ordered:

The Commission suspends revisions to the Mail Classification Schedule arising from Order Nos. 2365 and 2388 until the revised implementation date.

By the Commission.

Ruth Ann Abrams
Acting Secretary
