Washington, DC 20001

June 14, 2016

Dear Postal Regulatory Commission:

In regard to PRC Docket P12016-3, the Postal Regulatory Commission seeks comments on its report to the President and Congress, which includes recommendations for any legislation or other measures necessary to improve the effectiveness or efficiency of the postal laws of the United States.

With this letter, I submit summary comments from the American Consumer Institute to the commission, and I include an op-ed written by me and published in Forbes.

Thank you for your consideration of this submission.

Respectfully,

Steve Pociask
