INTRODUCTION

The Postal Regulatory Commission has an exciting summer internship opportunity for a law student.

OVERVIEW

The Postal Regulatory Commission is an independent agency that is part of the executive branch of the Federal government. As a small agency, we provide the opportunity for employees to work in a professional and collegial environment with talented and committed staff and to directly contribute to the Commission's mission, which, in part, is to develop and maintain regulations for a modern system of rate regulation, consult with the Postal Service on delivery service standards and performance measures, consult with the Department of State on international postal policies, prevent cross-subsidization or other anticompetitive postal practices, promote transparency and adjudicate complaints.

The law clerk/legal intern will be involved in a variety of entry-level assignments designed to provide insight into the challenges and opportunities available in a law office in the Federal government. The law clerk/legal intern program is designed to develop and provide training and work opportunities for law students. A salary may be considered depending on available budget and other Commission priorities.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The law clerk/legal intern will be responsible for carrying out legal assignments in the Commission's Office of the General Counsel.

The law clerk/legal intern may conduct legal research and writing projects and may have opportunities to present their findings, assist in the preparation of legal briefs and orders, and attend public hearings.

Typical work assignments will include:

- Preparing basic legal documents and other written materials;
- Advising senior staff on legal issues that confront the agency; and
- Researching and drafting legal memoranda on discrete research topics.

The law clerk/legal intern will work approximately 40 hours per week, with the exact schedule to be determined by mutual agreement.

MANDATORY QUALIFICATIONS:

- Enrollment in a law school accredited by the American Bar Association;
- Excellent interpersonal skills;
- Excellent written and oral communication skills; and
- Experience in legal memorandum writing.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Knowledge of administrative law.

EVALUATION

Applicants will be evaluated and rated using category rating procedures. Your resume and supporting documentation will be used to determine your ability to successfully perform the duties of the position. If you meet the basic qualifications for this job, your application will then be placed into one of three categories: Best Qualified, Highly Qualified, or Qualified. The panel will forward the application materials of candidates in the Best Qualified category to the hiring manager for selection.

BENEFITS

If you use public transportation, your transportation costs may be subsidized.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- Relocation expenses are not authorized.
- Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) Status: Non-exempt.
- You must be a U.S. citizen or national to be eligible for this position.
- To ensure the accomplishment of our mission, the Postal Regulatory Commission requires every employee to be reliable and trustworthy. To meet those standards, all selected applicants must undergo and successfully pass a background investigation as a condition of placement into this position.
- If you are a male born after December 31, 1959, you must certify that you have registered with the Selective Service System, or are exempt from having to do so under Selective Service Law.
