INTRODUCTION

THE POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION

The Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC) is an independent federal agency established (as the Postal Rate Commission) by the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970. From its establishment through the enactment of the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act (PAEA) of 2006, the Commission primarily received United States Postal Service proposals for domestic mail rates and classifications, presided over litigation regarding those proposals, and recommended rates and classifications to the Board of Governors of the United States Postal Service. PAEA, which was enacted on December 20, 2006, re-designated the Commission, expanded its jurisdiction to include international mail and service standards, and charged the Commission with implementing a new system of postal rate regulation.

The PRC consists of five Commissioners who are appointed for six-year terms by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate. No more than three of the Commissioners can be members of the same political party. The President designates one of the Commissioners to serve as Chairman, and the Commissioners, by majority vote, select one Commissioner to serve as Vice Chairman.

THE OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The Commission established the Office of Inspector General (OIG) on June 15, 2007 and hired the first Inspector General on June 23, 2007. During the reporting period, OIG had three full-time employees—the Inspector General, a senior auditor and an administrative assistant.

ACTIVITIES OF THE OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

AUDITS, INSPECTIONS AND EVALUATIONS

Under the Inspector General Act of 1978 as amended (IG Act), the Inspector General provides policy direction and conducts, supervises and coordinates audits and inspections relating to programs and operations of the Postal Regulatory Commission.

OIG conducts these reviews in accordance with either Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards or with the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency's Quality Standards for Inspection and Evaluation.

FINAL AUDIT REPORT: PRC'S IMPREST FUND

OIG conducted an inspection of the PRC's Imprest Fund to assess whether the PRC imprest fund was properly accounted for and administered according to PRC policy. The scope of our review included imprest fund expenses paid from July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014.

Our review revealed that PRC management did not adequately monitor the use of the fund. Specifically, PRC reimbursed employees for expenses that were over the $25 authorized limit and for questionable expenses categorized as "urgently needed supplies". During our review, PRC closed the imprest fund, discontinued reimbursements for transportation to and from Widely Attending Gatherings and also took action to have a former alternate imprest fund cashier deleted from the Postal Service system.

There were no recommendations in the report and PRC management did not provide comments. We were satisfied with PRC's corrective actions taken during the course of our review.

ONGOING AUDITS, INSPECTIONS AND EVALUATIONS

At the close of the reporting period, one inspection was ongoing regarding PRC's budget reporting process. The objective of the budget reporting inspection is to determine whether budget reports were properly documented and whether expenses were properly classified. The scope of our review will include PRC expenses during October 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014.

INVESTIGATIVE ACTIVITIES

Under the IG Act, OIG receives and investigates allegations of fraud, waste, abuse and misconduct within the PRC's programs and operations. OIG investigations can give rise to administrative, civil and criminal penalties.

In order to facilitate reporting of allegations, OIG maintains a hotline (see "Contacting the Office of Inspector General," Page 8). During the reporting period, OIG received hotline contacts via postal mail, electronic mail and telephone. Many were complaints regarding the United States Postal Service, which OIG forwarded for action.

OIG did not refer any matters for prosecution during the reporting period.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

REGULATORY REVIEW

Under Section 4(a)(2) of the IG Act, OIG reviews drafts of proposed Commission rules and regulations. OIG did not review any draft policies during the reporting period.

LIAISON ACTIVITIES

The Inspector General is a member of the Council of Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE), which was established on October 14, 2008, pursuant to the Inspector General Reform Act of 2008. During the reporting period, the Inspector General attended meetings of CIGIE as well as meetings of CIGIE's Legislation Committee.

PEER REVIEW

The most recent audit peer review of the PRC OIG was performed by the Appalachian Regional Commission Office of Inspector General on June 8, 2015. The report stated that the system of quality control for the audit organization of the PRC OIG in effect for the year ended September 30, 2014, has been suitably designed and complied with to provide the PRC OIG with reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable professional standards in all material respects. A copy of the PRC system review report is available on the OIG website.
