THE POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION

The Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC) is an independent federal agency established (as the Postal Rate Commission) by the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970. From its establishment through the enactment of the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act (PAEA) of 2006, the Commission primarily received United States Postal Service proposals for domestic mail rates and classifications, presided over litigation regarding those proposals, and recommended rates and classifications to the Board of Governors of the United States Postal Service. PAEA, which was enacted on December 20, 2006, re-designated the Commission, expanded its jurisdiction to include international mail and service standards, and charged the Commission with implementing a new system of postal rate regulation.

The PRC consists of five Commissioners who are appointed for six-year terms by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate. No more than three of the Commissioners can be members of the same political party. The President designates one of the Commissioners to serve as Chairman, and the Commissioners, by majority vote, select one Commissioner to serve as Vice Chairman.

During the reporting period, the PRC appointed Stacy L. Ruble as Secretary and Chief Administrative Officer. In his new role, Mr. Ruble will oversee the day-to-day operations of the Commission's Office of Secretary and Administration which provides management and staff support to the Commission's operational offices. Mr. Ruble succeeded Shoshana Grove who retired from the position after more than 40 years of service in the postal industry.

On January 1, 2016, the PRC elected Commissioner Nanci E. Langley as Vice Chairman of the PRC, succeeding Commissioner Tony Hammond.

THE OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The Commission established the Office of Inspector General (OIG) on June 15, 2007 and hired the first Inspector General on June 23, 2007. During the reporting period, OIG had three full-time employees—the Inspector General, a senior auditor and an administrative assistant.

AUDITS, INSPECTIONS AND EVALUATIONS

Under the Inspector General Act of 1978 as amended (IG Act), the Inspector General provides policy direction and conducts, supervises and coordinates audits and inspections relating to programs and operations of the Postal Regulatory Commission.

OIG conducts these reviews in accordance with either Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards or with the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency's Quality Standards for Inspection and Evaluation.

FINAL EVALUATION REPORT: FOLLOW-UP REVIEW TO POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION'S HANDLING OF NONPUBLIC INFORMATION

OIG initiated a follow-up review to Postal Regulatory Commission's Handling of Nonpublic Information. The objective of our evaluation was to determine if the recommendations made in our 2010 audit were implemented.

Our review determined that the PRC has effectively implemented all recommendations from our prior audit report, and we are satisfied with their corrective actions. There were no recommendations in this report.

ONGOING AUDITS, INSPECTIONS AND EVALUATIONS

At the close of the reporting period, two inspections were ongoing: (1) A review of the PRC's budget process and (2) A review of the PRC's Student Loan Repayment Program (SLRP) and tuition reimbursement program. OIG is conducting these reviews in accordance with the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency's Quality Standards for Inspection and Evaluation.

The objective of our review of the PRC's budget reporting process is to determine whether PRC budget reporting was properly documented and whether the expenses were properly classified. The scope of our review included PRC expenses from October 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014.

The objectives of our review of the PRC's Student Loan Repayment Program (SLRP) and tuition reimbursement program are to determine whether PRC complied with the SLRP and tuition reimbursement policies. The scope of our review includes SLRP and tuition reimbursement payments made to PRC employees during Calendar Years 2014 and 2015.

INVESTIGATIVE ACTIVITIES

Under the IG Act, OIG receives and investigates allegations of fraud, waste, abuse and misconduct within the PRC's programs and operations. OIG investigations can give rise to administrative, civil and criminal penalties.

In order to facilitate reporting of allegations, OIG maintains a hotline (see "Contacting the Office of Inspector General," Page 8). During the reporting period, OIG received hotline contacts via postal mail, electronic mail and telephone. Many were complaints regarding the United States Postal Service, which OIG forwarded for action.

OIG did not refer any matters for prosecution during the reporting period.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

REGULATORY REVIEW

Under Section 4(a)(2) of the IG Act, OIG reviews drafts of proposed Commission rules and regulations. OIG did not review any draft policies during the reporting period.

LIAISON ACTIVITIES

The Inspector General is a member of the Council of Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE), which was established on October 14, 2008, pursuant to the Inspector General Reform Act of 2008. The Inspector General attends meetings of CIGIE and serves on CIGIE's Legislation and Professional Development Committees.

PEER REVIEW

The most recent audit peer review of the PRC OIG was performed by the Appalachian Regional Commission Office of Inspector General on June 8, 2015. The report stated that the system of quality control for the audit organization of the PRC OIG in effect for the year ended September 30, 2014, has been suitably designed and complied with to provide the PRC OIG with reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable professional standards in all material respects. A copy of the PRC system review report is available on the OIG website.
