INTRODUCTION

THE POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION

The Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC) is an independent federal agency established (as the Postal Rate Commission) by the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970. From its establishment through the enactment of the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act (PAEA) of 2006, the Commission primarily received United States Postal Service proposals for domestic mail rates and classifications, presided over litigation regarding those proposals, and recommended rates and classifications to the Board of Governors of the United States Postal Service. PAEA, which was enacted on December 20, 2006, re-designated the Commission, expanded its jurisdiction to include international mail and service standards, and charged the Commission with implementing a new system of postal rate regulation.

The PRC consists of five Commissioners who are appointed for six-year terms by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate. No more than three of the Commissioners can be members of the same political party. The President designates one of the Commissioners to serve as Chairman, and the Commissioners, by majority vote, select one Commissioner to serve as Vice Chairman.

On January 4, 2021, the PRC elected Commissioner Ashley E. Poling as Vice Chairwoman of the Commission, succeeding Commissioner Michael M. Kubayanda. On January 25, President Biden formally designated Commissioner Michael M. Kubayanda as Chairman of the PRC. He succeeded Commissioner Robert G. Taub.

THE OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

The Commission established the Office of Inspector General (OIG) on June 15, 2007 and hired the first Inspector General on June 23, 2007. During the reporting period, OIG had three full-time employees—the Inspector General, a senior auditor and an administrative/program assistant.

ACTIVITIES OF THE OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

AUDITS, INSPECTIONS AND EVALUATIONS

Under the Inspector General Act of 1978 as amended (IG Act), the Inspector General provides policy direction and conducts, supervises and coordinates audits and inspections relating to programs and operations of the Postal Regulatory Commission.

OIG conducts these reviews in accordance with either Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards or with the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency's Quality Standards for Inspection and Evaluation, or other standards as deemed appropriate.

ONGOING AUDITS, INSPECTIONS AND EVALUATIONS

At the close of the reporting period, a follow-up review and an inspection were ongoing: (1) A follow-up review of Employee Transportation Subsidy Program and (2) An inspection of PRC Purchase Card Expenses. OIG is conducting these reviews in accordance with the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency's Quality Standards for Inspection and Evaluation.

The objective of our review of Employee Transportation Subsidy Program is to determine if the PRC took appropriate actions to implement recommendations 1, 8 and 9 made in our 2009 audit report.

The objective of our review of PRC Purchase Card Expenses is to determine whether PRC purchase card expenses were properly supported, reasonable, and made for business purposes. The scope of our review includes purchases made between October 1, 2018 through September 30, 2020.

INVESTIGATIVE ACTIVITIES

Under the IG Act, OIG receives and investigates allegations of fraud, waste, abuse and misconduct within the PRC's programs and operations. OIG investigations can give rise to administrative, civil and criminal penalties.

In order to facilitate reporting of allegations, OIG maintains a hotline (see "Contacting the Office of Inspector General," Page 8). During the reporting period, OIG received hotline contacts via postal mail, electronic mail and telephone. Many were complaints regarding the United States Postal Service, which OIG forwarded for action.

OIG did not refer any matters for prosecution during the reporting period.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

REGULATORY REVIEW

Under Section 4(a)(2) of the IG Act, OIG reviews drafts of proposed Commission rules and regulations.

LIAISON ACTIVITIES

The Inspector General is a member of the Council of Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE), which was established on October 14, 2008, pursuant to the Inspector General Reform Act of 2008. The Inspector General attends meetings of CIGIE and served on CIGIE's Legislation and Professional Development Committees.

PEER REVIEW

During the reporting period, OIG completed an audit peer review of the United States Capitol Police Office of Inspector General on December 28, 2020 pursuant to Government Auditing Standards requirements.

The National Endowment for the Arts Office of Inspector General concluded the most recent audit peer review of the PRC OIG on March 29, 2021. The report states that the PRC OIG established policies and procedures for the audit function in effect for the peer review period ending September 30, 2020 that were current and consistent with applicable professional standards.
